Tank Blows Up

Boy Fairly Good After Explosion

SITE OF NEAR-TRAGEDY. Asst. Fire Chief Gerald Goodballet and Fire Chief Charles Bryan check the vent pipe of an abandoned underground gasoline storage tank on Walnut St. from which gasoline fumes exploded and ignited Wednesday afternoon hospitalizing a Sophia St. youngster, who was peering down the pipe.

A Sophia St. youngster is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with facial and leg burns received Wednesday afternoon when fumes from a long - unused underground gasoline storage tank, exploded, belching flames into his face from a 3½-inch vent pipe down which he was peering with two companions.

Harry Fotheringham, 14, son of Robert Fotheringham, 738 Sophia St., was admitted to the hospital at 1:30 yesterday afternoon with first, second and third degree burns of the face and right leg received in the fire following a blast about 25 feet into the air.

His brother, Robert Fotheringham, 13, and their companion, Rudy Slagle, 11, of 806 St. Clair Ave., escaped injury.

THE CAUSE of the explosion and fire hasn't been determined, but police and firemen said either a match, cigarette or spark touched off the fumes accumulated in the abandoned tank.

The youngsters denied they were smoking at the time. Police Chief Americo Radeschi theorized the sprocket wheel on the bike might have rubbed against the metal pipe, causing a spark.

Questioned at the hospital, the young victim said all he could remember was that he and his companions were looking down the pipe when black smoke and flames struck him in the face.

HIS BROTHER and young Slagle agreed with his version, adding that they fled when flames spewed out of the pipe, located in a grassy plot between the curb and sidewalk in front of a new building for Goodyear Stores, Inc., 653 Walnut St.

Young Fotheringham was rushed to the hospital by Bill Griffith, a Goodyear employe, as others notified police of the accident at 1:17 p. m. 1:31 p. m.

Mrs. Aileen Turner of 7th Ave., LaCroft, a former city meter maid, told Patrolman Jerry Adkins that she saw the boys looking down the pipe. When the explosion occurred, one of the youngsters, appar-

Defense Department To Ask Increase Of 300,000 Troops

3,700 U.S. Paratroops Land In Viet

B52s Dump 500 Tons Of Bombs On Red Positions

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division, successors to the World War II heroes of Normandy and Bastogne, came to the war in South Viet Nam today.

As 3,700 men of the 101st's First Brigade began landing at Cam Ranh Bay, 180 miles northeast of Saigon, a U.S. spokesman said giant B52 jet bombers of the U.S. Strategic Air Command dumped 500 tons of bombs on suspected Viet Cong positions 35 miles southeast of Saigon.

After the B52 raid — the sixth in South Viet Nam by the Okinawa-based bombers — several thousand paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade began combing the hilly area. By late today one Viet Cong had been killed, another captured, and there were no U.S. casualties, the spokesman reported.

The paratroopers who landed at Cam Ranh Bay were greeted by the man who commanded their division when it dropped into Normandy to spearhead the invasion of France, Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor.

It was one of Taylor's last official acts in Viet Nam. He leaves Saigon Friday, to be replaced by Henry Cabot Lodge.

Among the arrivals was Taylor's son Thomas, an intelligence officer with the brigade.

The landing came less than 24 hours after President Johnson announced U.S. forces in Viet Nam would be increased from 7,500 to 125,000 men. But a U.S. spokesman said the brigade was part of a six-battalion increase in U.S. forces that had been programmed some weeks ago. He said it was not part of the buildup the President announced Wednesday.

The paratroopers came from Oakland, Calif., aboard the troop transport Gen. Le Roy L. Eltinge. The brigade commander, Col. James Timothy of New Orleans, La., said his men would deploy initially around Cam Ranh Bay to provide security for 2,500 U.S. Army engineers who are building a port and airstrip.

Some Call For More Information Or Spending Cutbacks

Johnson Receives Strong Support In Congress On Troops Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson had extensive support today in Congress for his decision to send 50,000 additional troops now, and more later, into Viet Nam.

Not all criticism was stilled, however, and some who approved called for more information on the Vietnamese situation or cutbacks in domestic spending.

At a news conference Wednesday that jammed the East Room of the White House, Johnson spoke to 250 newsmen and to the country by television and radio. He said he has decided:

—To send to Viet Nam a new, helicopter-borne division and enough other troops to raise American strength in the embattled country quickly from 75,000 to 125,000 men.

—To increase draft calls more than 100 per cent, from 17,000 men a month to 35,000.

—Not to mobilize any National Guard or reserve units at least for the moment.

Today, Pentagon sources said the Defense Department probably will ask Congress to boost the regular U.S. military forces gradually by at least 300,000 men through draft calls and recruitment.

It was learned also that the U.S. air attack Tuesday on two missile sites near Hanoi was partly responsible for Johnson's decision not to call up reservists now. The attack was felt to be a strong demonstration of the "no retreat" policy; without the attack some mobilization might have been used to display national determination.

Viet Nam dominated the news conference and set its somber tone when Johnson spoke of "the most agonizing and the most painful duty of your President." This, he said, is the duty of sending young men away from homes, work and happiness.

Would Swell U.S. Forces To 3 Million

Sources Say Much Of Boost Would Be Applied To Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department probably will ask Congress to boost the regular military forces by 300,000 men or more in a gradual buildup through heavier draft calls and recruitment of volunteers.

Sources disclosed this today as it became clear President Johnson had chosen a relatively slow course of girding for the long haul in Viet Nam, rather than a quick buildup using reservists and National Guardsmen.

A boost of 300,000 regulars would swell U.S. military strength to about three million men. Much of the increase would be applied to the Army, sources said.

Among other things, the Army will get one more division, probably mechanized infantry, to raise its division total to 17. More independent infantry brigades also are planned. An Army division totals about 15,000 men, a brigade about 4,000.

Johnson's move increasing the U.S. military commitment in Viet Nam by 50,000 men, to a total of 125,000, falls short of expectations. But it is considered likely further U.S. reinforcements, possibly as many as 50,000 more, may flow to the war zone by the end of the year.

The new strengthening of forces in Viet Nam is well below what would be needed to bring about a 10-1 or even an 8-1 margin of superiority over the Communist guerrillas infesting the country. Some experts say such a ratio is essential.

To reach a margin of 10 to 1 or 8 to 1, another 650,000 to 900,000 Americans would have to be

Draft Board 16 Waits Boosts In Inductions

LISBON — Increased draft calls will boost Columbiana County Draft Board 16's inductions from the current 20 to 30 a month to 40 or more under the step - up of the Selective Service program.

For August, 78 men were summoned for physical examinations Aug. 23 and 27 men are to be inducted Aug. 24.

Defeats Sunday Liquor Bill

Ohio House Sets School Bus Vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An embattled bill extending school bus service to private and parochial school pupils reached the floor of the Ohio House today as lawmakers sought agreement on last remaining measures.

Sponsors predicted passage of the controversial proposal despite opposition from Protestant church groups and others who maintain it would be unconstitutional.

The Senate called up for a vote a House-passed measure earmarking $279 million of the $290 million bond issue approved in the May primary for capital improvements in the next two years.

Fast-moving developments in the assembly Wednesday included House defeat of the watered-down Sunday liquor bill and rejection by the lower chamber of Senate amendments adding $9 million to the school foundation bill.

Senators moved with almost unbelievable speed in introducing, hearing, passing, and sending to the House a bill to exempt members of the legislature, its employes, and the lieutenant governor from the Columbus municipal income tax — unless they are residents of Columbus.

The Sunday liquor bill went down by a 50-75 vote despite addition of floor amendments which would have had it apply only to counties with 800,000 or more population.

Arrival of the bill on the House floor marked the first time in Ohio history for such legislation even to get out of committee. It had been approved earlier by the Senate.

Leaders of the two houses planned to name a conference committee today to resolve differences on the record $634 million school foundation bill.

House Majority Floor Leader Robert F. Reckman, R-Hamilton, said the addition of $9 million by the Senate would make it necessary to increase local taxes to cover costs in the next two years. Senators denied the claim.

Sen. Jim Thorpe, R - Stark, and others introduced the Columbus income tax proposal a few hours after an Ohio Supreme Court decision said the lawmakers are subject to the tax while living in Columbus.

Weirton Steel To Construct New Building

Plans for the construction of a five-story building to house the offices and laboratories of the Quality Control Department at the Weirton Steel Co. division of the National Steel Corp. were announced today by C. G. Tournay, president.

The new building will be constructed on the north side of Pennsylvania Ave., directly opposite the Bank of Weirton. It is expected to be completed and in operation by early 1967. Two buildings — the former Crawford House and a service station — which were situated on the site have been razed to make way for the structure.

"The construction of a new Quality Control building," Tournay said, "is part of our overall plan to have the most modern steelmaking facilities in the industry, once the 'Steel Mill of the Future' is completed and in operation."

The Quality Control building will feature an exterior of Stran-Steel metal siding. There will be approximately 50 parking spaces available. Also included in the plans is a sub-basement which will house some of the testing equipment and laboratory space.

Labor Seeks Senate's OK On Shop Bill

House Votes Repeal Of Section Of T-H, Hitting State Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany says organized labor is working hard to win Senate approval of the House-passed bill which would strike down state laws banning the union shop.

The fight to repeal section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act, a major campaign pledge of President Johnson to organized labor, is expected to be longer and tougher in the Senate than the three-day House battle climaxed by a 221-203 vote Wednesday.

Repeal of 14B would wipe out laws in 19 states that now forbid union shop contracts.

The union shop, under which all employes must join the union, may now legally be provided in labor-management contracts in 31 states. These are the ones that do not specifically outlaw it.

"This (the House vote) represents a very important step in bringing justice to American workers," Meany said. "We're going to work hard."

On the other side of the battle line, Reid Larson, executive vice president of the National Right to Work Committee, said in a statement:

"The sanctioning of compulsory union membership via the repeal of 14B by the House was

Wellsville Board Speeds Program

Plans for a proposed $1,193,938 building program were put into motion by the Wellsville Board of Education at a special meeting Wednesday night.

The board had applied for state aid in the project the latter part of 1964. Last night, it adopted a resolution accepting the conditional approval given by the State Board of Education and State Controlling Board.

The program calls for the state to provide $333,938 and the school district $860,000. The state's participation is tied to approval by Wellsville school district voters of a bond issue.

THE BOARD adopted a resolution of necessity to hold a special election on the bond issue. The Columbiana County Board of Elections will be asked to conduct the election either Sept. 21, the preferred date, or Sept. 28.

When initiated last year, the building proposal totaled $1,107,084. Supt. Lowell Myers pointed out there has been an overall increase of 5 per cent in the figures provided by the state because of the boost in building costs being encountered by state officials in various other programs.

It is estimated that a maximum of 6 mills will be needed to retire the bonds. This will decrease each year until the entire program will require an average of about 4.85 mills, board members pointed out.

THE PROPOSAL by the state calls for a new 600-pupil elementary building at a cost of $566,124, including the site and site improvements. The site has not been selected, although the school will be located in the lower part of Wellsville.

A 180-pupil addition to Fairview School at Hillcrest, including water and sewage facilities, is estimated at $407,705. The state proposes that the children from the upper end of Wellsville be transported to the Fairview building.

A cost of $157,500 has been set for remodeling of the art, typing, business education, library, drawing, industrial arts, home economics and music rooms in the high school.

The addition of an arts and crafts room to the MacDonald School is estimated at $29,939. The contingency fund for the entire project is set at $32,670.

Myers, William Ferrall, a board member, and Raymond Rolley, clerk, attended an orientation meeting Monday at Columbus on the program. The of-

State Leaders Wait Briefing On Viet Nam

Johnson's Decision Overshadows All Else At Conference

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Governors shorten the windup business sessions of their 57th annual conference today to climb aboard President Johnson's jet plane and fly to Washington for a White House briefing on Viet Nam.

The President's announcement Wednesday that the number of U.S. fighting men in Southeast Asia will rise quickly from 75,000 to 125,000 men — with a doubling of monthly draft calls — overshadowed all else at the governors conference.

Among their tasks was choosing a new chairman to succeed Democratic Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada. This, in itself, seemed likely to reflect the predominant bipartisan supported expressed by the conference for Johnson's Viet Nam policy.

The conference nominating committee had before it a Republican recommendation for the selection of Govs. John A. Love of Colorado or Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon as chairman.

Hatfield and GOP Gov. George Romney of Michigan were the only state executives who voted against a motion by Democratic Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia to put the conference on record as "endorsing

50 Units Due For Chester's Friday Event

More than 50 units are scheduled to participate in the annual Chester Firemen's Parade Friday at 7 p.m.

Jerrold Wilson, parade chairman, said more than 30 fire departments will be represented, along with drill teams, junior majorette units and high school bands.

The parade will form on Virginia Ave., proceed down 2nd St. to Carolina Ave., down Carolina Ave. to 5th St., where it will turn into the City Park area. Mayor Harry Abrams will be honorary parade marshal.

The fireman's carnival on 4th St., will be open after the end of the parade, according to Assistant Chief Alton Johnson, who is in charge.

Johnson said the department has invited children from the Hancock Childrens Home to be its guests.

THE PROPOSAL by the state calls for a new 600-pupil elementary building at a cost of $566,124, including the site and site improvements. The site has not been selected, although the school will be located in the lower part of Wellsville.

A 180-pupil addition to Fairview School at Hillcrest, including water and sewage facilities, is estimated at $407,705. The state proposes that the children from the upper end of Wellsville be transported to the Fairview building.

A cost of $157,500 has been set for remodeling of the art, typing, business education, library, drawing, industrial arts, home economics and music rooms in the high school.

The addition of an arts and crafts room to the MacDonald School is estimated at $29,939. The contingency fund for the entire project is set at $32,670.

State Leaders Wait Briefing On Viet Nam

Johnson's Decision Overshadows All Else At Conference

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Governors shorten the wind-up business sessions of their 57th annual conference today to climb aboard President Johnson's jet plane and fly to Washington for a White House briefing on Viet Nam.

The President's announcement Wednesday that the number of U.S. fighting men in Southeast Asia will rise quickly from 75,000 to 125,000 men — with a doubling of monthly draft calls — overshadowed all else at the governors conference.

Among their tasks was choosing a new chairman to succeed Democratic Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada. This, in itself, seemed likely to reflect the predominant bipartisan supported expressed by the conference for Johnson's Viet Nam policy.

The conference nominating committee had before it a Republican recommendation for the selection of Govs. John A. Love of Colorado or Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon as chairman.

Hatfield and GOP Gov. George Romney of Michigan were the only state executives who voted against a motion by Democratic Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia to put the conference on record as "endorsing

50 Units Due For Chester's Friday Event

More than 50 units are scheduled to participate in the annual Chester Firemen's Parade Friday at 7 p.m.

Jerrold Wilson, parade chairman, said more than 30 fire departments will be represented, along with drill teams, junior majorette units and high school bands.

The parade will form on Virginia Ave., proceed down 2nd St. to Carolina Ave., down Carolina Ave. to 5th St., where it will turn into the City Park area. Mayor Harry Abrams will be honorary parade marshal.

The fireman's carnival on 4th St., will be open after the end of the parade, according to Assistant Chief Alton Johnson, who is in charge.

Johnson said the department has invited children from the Hancock Childrens Home to be its guests.

King Ends 2-Day Visit In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. ended a two-day visit to Cleveland by telling Negroes they can better their lot only through political power.

Negroes throughout the country must "go all out to get registered and vote," the civil rights leader told an estimated 4,500, mostly Negroes, at a rally in Cleveland Arena Wednesday night.

"This is your strongest weapon."

King returned to Atlanta after the rally climaxing his second stop on his tour of four Northern cities. He came here from Chicago and next week is scheduled to appear in Philadelphia and Washington.

"We must develop a continuing sense of somebodiness.

"We must develop a grand alliance, a coalition of conscience, for the entire country, of labor, religious and interracial groups.

"We must achieve excellence in whatever our field of endeavor, even if it is as a street sweeper. We must be the best of whatever we are."

He urged the federal and state government to "do something special" for the disadvantaged in America.

King went to the rally after spending the day visiting poor neighborhoods and wealthy suburban areas. He urged Negroes to vote and whites to follow a path of brotherhood.

Police outnumbered the 75 pickets who paraded in front of the arena before the rally. A man who identified himself as a member of the Congress of Racial Equality grabbed a sign from a 10-year-old boy marching for the National Association for the Advancement of White People

The man threw the sign on the ground, then stomped on it. Police took the man away and adult pickets handed the boy another sign.

Earlier at a street rally police said a 50-year-old Negro man called King the "whitewasher of the Negro." Witnesses said the man told them he had a gun and was going to kill King. Police seized and searched him, and found he was carrying only a hamburger. He was taken into custody.

Demonstrations Of CD Activities Set At Glenmoor

Plans for a demonstration Sunday in Glenmoor were discussed during a meeting of the St. Clair Township Civil Defense Wednesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

The fire team and combined land and rescue teams will present the demonstration. It will be similar to one held here Sunday.

Don Parsons, chief, presided. A membership campaign for both units was discussed.

Fines, Jail Sentences Result From Hearings

Two persons were fined, two received both fines and jail sentences and charges against two others were dismissed in liquor violation hearings conducted by Squire John D. Herron Wednesday afternoon.

Fred W. Fletcher, licensee of the Valley Inn, located on Kings Creek Rd., and Josephine Magrini, licensee of Al's Fort Pitt Bar in Weirton, each was fined $150 and costs on a charge of possession of alcoholic liquor.

Carl Kiger of the Yacht Club in New Cumberland and Robert Korencic, licensee of Ray's Bar in Weirton, each was fined $200 and costs and each sentenced to 20 days in the Hancock County jail.

The charges against Nick Moutsatos of the Hi-Lo Lounge in Weirton and Joseph Sanfilippo of Ruth's Tavern in Weirton were dismissed when their defense attorney stated that the two men were not licensees of the respective establishments and could not be brosecuted on charges of possession of alcoholic liquor on licensed premises.

Charges of permitting the sale of liquor were dismissed because the warrants had been dated June 31 and, therefore, were illegal.

Barnes said he would appeal Herron's sentences in all four cases. Kiger, Fletcher, Korencic and Mrs. Magrini each posted $500 appeal bond.

$2 Million Loss Seen In Blaze; 260 Out Of Jobs

MONTPELIER, Ohio (AP)—A fire that destroyed the White Motor Co. plant here Wednesday caused damage that may reach $2 million and left 260 employes without their jobs, officials reported.

The factory was demolished. Also destroyed, according to officials, were about 40 truck bodies in various stages of completion and all equipment contained in the buidling.

Company representatives and insurance adjustors were to examine the ruins today to determine the exact amount of damage.

Driver In Accident Listed 'Fairly Good'

Melvin Rowley, 27, who was injured in an accident on Pennsylvania Route 168 Wednesday morning, is listed in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital.

The Carnegie Barracks of the Pennsylvania state police said Rowley, who resides at Calcutta R. D. 2, was traveling south on 168 in a small truck owned by the T. B. Ferguson Trucking Co. of Darlington, Pa., when an unidentified vehicle, traveling north, forced him off of the road.

The truck went into a ditch and then turned over, according to the police. The accident was timed at 7:30 a.m. and occurred three miles south of Florence. Damage was estimated at $225 to the truck.

Deaths and Funerals

Jonathan P. Morgan

Services for Jonathan P. Morgan, 8, of Marietta will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the McClure Funeral Home in Marietta. Burial will be in Marietta.

He was the son of William Morgan and Deborah Smith Morgan and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, all of East Liverpool.

He was injured fatally Tuesday afternoon when struck by a car in the Marietta area.

Hospital Treats Pottery Worker, 8 From District

A city pottery worker injured in a fall from a ladder was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital, where eight area residents were treated Wednesday after separate mishaps.

Frederick Lyons of 316 Jefferson St., an employe of the Hall China Co., suffered a fracture and laceration of a wrist in a fall from a ladder at the warehouse of the pottery.

Danny Green, son of Mrs. Ruth Green of 1000 May St., suffered a dislocated right thumb and Jerry Clutter, son of Bernard Clutter of 845 W. 8th St. received a cut on the chin while wrestling.

Alvin Whitehill, son of James Whitehill of Georgetown R. D. 1, fell on gravel while playing, suffering abrasions of the knee.

John Hoback, son of John Hoback of 311 Ogden St., fell on glass at play and was treated for a cut forehead.

$18,210 Cost Seen For Guards At Riots

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It cost Ohio taxpayers at least $18,210 to send the Ohio National Guard out to quell the Fourth of July riots at Russells Point and Geneva-on-the-lake.

The final bill isn't in yet, according to Maj. Gen. Erwin C. Hostetler, Ohio National Guard commander.

He tabulated and filed the bill for $18,210 with State Auditor Chester W. Goble Wednesday but said bills have yet to be submitted for food, gas and oil and other miscellaneous items.

$360 Taken In Theft At East Palestine Cafe

EAST PALESTINE — A total of $360 in bills and currency was stolen from Chick's Cafe of N. Market St., Violet Blake, an employe of the cafe, reported to city police at 6:20 a. m. today.

Officers said no forcible entry was found. The cash was in a cabinet in the rear of the building near which the key to the lock was hanging, they added.

Council Meeting Set

ROGERS — Conditions at the village dump will be discussed at a meeting of Council Monday night at 7 at the fire station, Mayor Glenn Rhodes said today.

White Youth Slain; Two In Georgia Held

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — A white teen-ager was fatally wounded by a shot fired from a passing car early today as about 250 Negroes started an all-night civil rights vigil at the Sumter County Courthouse.

Police arrested two Negroes in connection with the shooting. They were identified as Eddie Will Lamar and Charlie Lee Hopkins, both of Americus.

Witnesses said the victim, 19-year-old Andy Whatley, was shot shortly after midnight as he stood with a group of white youths at a service station about three blocks from the courthouse.

He was given emergency treatment at a local hospital and rushed to a hospital at Albany, about 40 miles away, where he died at 2 a.m.

Witnesses said two or three shots were fired from a car containing three Negroes. Others, however, thought there were only two Negroes in the auto.

Civil rights demonstrators made three marches to the courthouse Wednesday. The first two were completed without incident although some whites heckled them.

About 50 whites gathered but police formed a line to separate them from the Negroes, who carried bedrolls and raincoats.

Mayor T. Griffin Walker asked the whites to leave and they departed after about a half hour.

Civil rights leaders said they would start an economic boycott at noon today.

In Macon, U.S District Judge W. A. Bootle issued a temporary injunction barring Sumter County officials from enforcing segregation at the voting polls. He also ordered the release of four Negro women voters whose arrests triggered demonstrations here.

The action was sought by the Justice Department in a suit filed Tuesday. Bootle set a hearing for 11 a.m. Friday.

The department's suit, under the 1957 Civil Rights Act, named as defendants Sheriff Fred D. Chappell and 14 other county officials.

New Records Set For Ashland Oil

ASHLAND, Ky. — The Ashland Oil & Refining Co.'s earnings for the three-month period ending June 30 were the highest for any quarter in the company's history, Board Chairman Rexford S. Blazer and President Orin E. Atkins announced today.

Net income for the quarter was $8,019,823, equal to $1.02 a share on common stock. This is an increase of 46 per cent over net income of $5,498,907 and 71 cents a share for the corresponding period last year.

Net income of $22,323,473 for nine months of Ashland Oil's current fiscal year also was at a record level, equaling $2.86 a share on common stock, compared with $17,566,028 and $2.28 a share for last year's comparable period.

The company's sales for the nine months are continuing to run about 13 per cent above last year's sales, the officers said.

Airman Resumes Duty After Visiting Parents

Fines, Jail Sentences Result From Hearings

Two persons were fined, two received both fines and jail sentences and charges against two others were dismissed in liquor violation hearings conducted by Squire John D. Herron Wednesday afternoon.

Fred W. Fletcher, licensee of the Valley Inn, located on Kings Creek Rd., and Josephine Magrini, licensee of Al's Fort Pitt Bar in Weirton, each was fined $150 and costs on a charge of possession of alcoholic liquor.

Carl Kiger of the Yacht Club in New Cumberland and Robert Korencic, licensee of Ray's Bar in Weirton, each was fined $200 and costs and each sentenced to 20 days in the Hancock County jail.

The charges against Nick Moutsatos of the Hi-Lo Lounge in Weirton and Joseph Sanfilippo of Ruth's Tavern in Weirton were dismissed when their defense attorney stated that the two men were not licensees of the respective establishments and could not be brosecuted on charges of possession of alcoholic liquor on licensed premises.

Charges of permitting the sale of liquor were dismissed because the warrants had been dated June 31 and, therefore, were illegal.

Barnes said he would appeal Herron's sentences in all four cases. Kiger, Fletcher, Korencic and Mrs. Magrini each posted $500 appeal bond.

$2 Million Loss Seen In Blaze; 260 Out Of Jobs

MONTPELIER, Ohio (AP)—A fire that destroyed the White Motor Co. plant here Wednesday caused damage that may reach $2 million and left 260 employes without their jobs, officials reported.

The factory was demolished. Also destroyed, according to officials, were about 40 truck bodies in various stages of completion and all equipment contained in the buidling.

Company representatives and insurance adjustors were to examine the ruins today to determine the exact amount of damage.

Driver In Accident Listed 'Fairly Good'

Melvin Rowley, 27, who was injured in an accident on Pennsylvania Route 168 Wednesday morning, is listed in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital.

The Carnegie Barracks of the Pennsylvania state police said Rowley, who resides at Calcutta R. D. 2, was traveling south on 168 in a small truck owned by the T. B. Ferguson Trucking Co. of Darlington, Pa., when an unidentified vehicle, traveling north, forced him off of the road.

The truck went into a ditch and then turned over, according to the police. The accident was timed at 7:30 a.m. and occurred three miles south of Florence. Damage was estimated at $225 to the truck.

Deaths and Funerals

Jonathan P. Morgan

Services for Jonathan P. Morgan, 8, of Marietta will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the McClure Funeral Home in Marietta. Burial will be in Marietta.

He was the son of William Morgan and Deborah Smith Morgan and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, all of East Liverpool.

He was injured fatally Tuesday afternoon when struck by a car in the Marietta area.

Hospital Treats Pottery Worker, 8 From District

A city pottery worker injured in a fall from a ladder was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital, where eight area residents were treated Wednesday after separate mishaps.

Frederick Lyons of 316 Jefferson St., an employe of the Hall China Co., suffered a fracture and laceration of a wrist in a fall from a ladder at the warehouse of the pottery.

Danny Green, son of Mrs. Ruth Green of 1000 May St., suffered a dislocated right thumb and Jerry Clutter, son of Bernard Clutter of 845 W. 8th St. received a cut on the chin while wrestling.

John Hoback, son of John Hoback of 311 Ogden St., fell on glass at play and was treated for a cut forehead.

$18,210 Cost Seen For Guards At Riots

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It cost Ohio taxpayers at least $18,210 to send the Ohio National Guard out to quell the Fourth of July riots at Russells Point and Geneva-on-the-lake.

The final bill isn't in yet, according to Maj. Gen. Erwin C. Hostetler, Ohio National Guard commander.

He tabulated and filed the bill for $18,210 with State Auditor Chester W. Goble Wednesday but said bills have yet to be submitted for food, gas and oil and other miscellaneous items.

$360 Taken In Theft At East Palestine Cafe

EAST PALESTINE — A total of $360 in bills and currency was stolen from Chick's Cafe of N. Market St., Violet Blake, an employe of the cafe, reported to city police at 6:20 a. m. today.

Officers said no forcible entry was found. The cash was in a cabinet in the rear of the building near which the key to the lock was hanging, they added.

Council Meeting Set

ROGERS — Conditions at the village dump will be discussed at a meeting of Council Monday night at 7 at the fire station, Mayor Glenn Rhodes said today.

White Youth Slain; Two In Georgia Held

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — A white teen-ager was fatally wounded by a shot fired from a passing car early today as about 250 Negroes started an all-night civil rights vigil at the Sumter County Courthouse.

Police arrested two Negroes in connection with the shooting. They were identified as Eddie Will Lamar and Charlie Lee Hopkins, both of Americus.

Witnesses said the victim, 19-year-old Andy Whatley, was shot shortly after midnight as he stood with a group of white youths at a service station about three blocks from the courthouse.

He was given emergency treatment at a local hospital and rushed to a hospital at Albany, about 40 miles away, where he died at 2 a.m.

Witnesses said two or three shots were fired from a car containing three Negroes. Others, however, thought there were only two Negroes in the auto.

Civil rights demonstrators made three marches to the courthouse Wednesday. The first two were completed without incident although some whites heckled them.

About 50 whites gathered but police formed a line to separate them from the Negroes, who carried bedrolls and raincoats.

Mayor T. Griffin Walker asked the whites to leave and they departed after about a half hour.

Civil rights leaders said they would start an economic boycott at noon today.

In Macon, U.S District Judge W. A. Bootle issued a temporary injunction barring Sumter County officials from enforcing segregation at the voting polls. He also ordered the release of four Negro women voters whose arrests triggered demonstrations here.

The action was sought by the Justice Department in a suit filed Tuesday. Bootle set a hearing for 11 a.m. Friday.

The department's suit, under the 1957 Civil Rights Act, named as defendants Sheriff Fred D. Chappell and 14 other county officials.

New Records Set For Ashland Oil

ASHLAND, Ky. — The Ashland Oil & Refining Co.'s earnings for the three-month period ending June 30 were the highest for any quarter in the company's history, Board Chairman Rexford S. Blazer and President Orin E. Atkins announced today.

Net income for the quarter was $8,019,823, equal to $1.02 a share on common stock. This is an increase of 46 per cent over net income of $5,498,907 and 71 cents a share for the corresponding period last year.

Net income of $22,323,473 for nine months of Ashland Oil's current fiscal year also was at a record level, equaling $2.86 a share on common stock, compared with $17,566,028 and $2.28 a share for last year's comparable period.

The company's sales for the nine months are continuing to run about 13 per cent above last year's sales, the officers said.

Airman Resumes Duty After Visiting Parents

A Workshop For Hancock

A campaign has been launched for the establishment of a Community Sheltered Workshop in Weirton to serve Hancock County — a workshop which would help severely-handicapped persons, including the mentally retarded, to assume a more fitting and more self-satisfying place in the every-day world.

Statistics provided by the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the West Virginia Board of Vocational Education at Charleston show there are approximately 500 persons in the county known to be physically or mentally disabled. Of this number, about 100 are considered in immediate need of sheltered workshop services.

THE FIGURES are challenging. They represent persons who, because of their severe limitations, find it almost impossible to compete against non-handicapped persons for available jobs.

Those sponsoring the Hancock program point out the handicapped "are in need of non-competitive sheltered employment in a workshop, an environment in which they can work at their own pace, earn wages and develop work skills and habits."

With these newly-formed skills, many then would be able to be placed into outside gainful employment. The workshop would be transitional in character.

The referrals are anticipated from several sources, sponsors say. The Hancock County school system would be one. At present, it is operating special education classes for approximately 58 students ranging from ages 8 through 18. These classes are set up for children who find it difficult to function in a normal classroom situation. Referrals also can be expected from the Welfare Department, the County Health Department, the Vocational Rehabilitation Office, the Mental Retardation Council, parents and other interested persons.

WE IN COLUMBIANA County, through the record of the Retarded Children's School at Elkton, are fully aware of what strides can be made in aiding the handicapped under a well-planned, carefully-supervised program.

While the retarded school is smaller in scope than the proposed Hancock facility, it does serve in a sense as a measuring stick for the value of such programs.

If the workshop accomplishments would increase proportionately, there is no question that value would be more than received for the time and effort required.

It should be remembered, however, that quite often the beginning is what could be called the easy phase of such an enterprise. It's after the excitement and warm feeling of doing something worthwhile begins to wear off that the real test sets in and the challenge becomes the greater and the more demanding.

The workshop program deserves the support of all interested in meeting a problem that calls for attention in view of the statistics that have been presented.

Fair Exchange

A heart-felt and cordial Columbiana County welcome to those from Cayuga County in New York who are visiting various homes in the area as part of a 4-H exchange program.

May their stay prove enjoyable and enlightening. And we hope that those from Columbiana County who go to New York later on as the other end of the exchange prove just as satisfactory ambassadors of good will.

With modern miracles of transportation and communications, it's truly "one world." But there's nothing like a heart-to-heart neighborly chat to find out how the other half lives and to cement relations between those from scattered parts of the nation.

Nothing New Since April

The war in Viet Nam will be stepped up, promises President Johnson. The United States does not intend to lose.

Gone now are the dreams of a negotiated peace in Viet Nam inspired by President Johnson's address last April at Johns Hopkins University.

Congress, he said, then, would be asked to authorize a billion-dollar investment in Viet Nam's industrial development.

This sum would be augmented by other nations, including North Viet Nam.

The program would be initiated by the United Nations, not by the United States. It would be a manifestation of international good will.

Republican spokesmen in Congress condemned it as a gesture of appeasement. The United States, they said, was trying to buy peace.

Democratic spokesmen thought of it as a revelation of U.S. strength of purpose and will—a manifesto of peaceful intent.

In many capitals, the offer inspired fresh hope of settlement of an issue that could not be resolved by military force. No one wants the Vietnamese war.

It had been pointed out by Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, among others, that U.S. bombing attacks on North Viet Nam were making it impossible for that country's government to participate in peacemaking moves, which would be viewed as evidence of weakness.

Whatever hopes existed about peacemaking last April have perished in hundreds of bombing raids and thousands of casualties since then.

There has been no response to the peacemaking overtures. The United States and South Viet Nam have continued to kill the Viet Cong and the Viet Cong have continued to do everything to make Southeast Asia untenable for the hated white men —formerly French, now American.

The war has escalated.

The question as August nears is whether the United States can step up its efforts as fast as the enemy can step up his efforts.

President Johnson declares he will double the draft call, but that will not be enough. That will be only the beginning.

Draftees will be no solution for the problem of fighting this most difficult of wars on the other side of the world against a home-based enemy who strikes and vanishes into the forests.

Even regular troops with long training are baffled by this kind of war.

The United States does not intend to lose in Viet Nam.

But it has no formula for winning.

That is the net import of President Johnson's latest revelation. There is nothing new since last April when he proposed cooperative industrial development as a possible way out of a military stalemate.

Nothing came of that. The enemy wasn't impressed.

The enemy thought he could win then. He still does.

Watch It!

When a person has the audacity to enter a bedroom at 3 a.m. and rifle a man's pockets under his very sleeping nose, there's cause for concern and lessons to be learned.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Hope this finds you well. We are the same.

Today I want to set down a few thoughts about kooks.

The thoughts have come to me while reading about Adlai Stevenson, who was a kook.

First, I suppose, we had better define a kook.

The word isn't in my dictionary. But its meaning is clear.

A kook is someone who uses his brain to reach conclusions that do not jibe with the conventional order.

The conventional order also is the conventional wisdom, meaning what most people think because it is what most other people think.

This is why it took so long to sell the idea that blood circulated through the human body, germs caused disease and malaria was not caused by breathing the air from swamps. Most people thought these things were untrue.

It is why so many people had to work so hard to split the atom, quit laughing at hunchbacks, burning witches and sending wretches with contagious diseases to pesthouses.

Thanks to kooks, we got rid of witch doctors, made surgeons wash their hands before delving into our innards and found out that the best way to treat polio patients was to maintain muscle tone, instead of encasing them in plaster casts.

Kooks gave us internal combustion engines, knowledge of the universe, the principle of the lever, Christianity, child labor laws and civil rights.

They gave us laws about abusing animals, women and insane people.

Every invention that has added to our convenience has come from the mind of some kook who thought there might be a better way to do something than the way it always had been done.

Every idea that has broadened our mental horizons has bubbled out of the fermented mind of an imaginative kook.

The art that enriches our souls was kooky, likewise the music.

Every new departure in literature has been instigated by a kook and carried along by other kooks until it became conventional.

In politics, today's kooky idea frequently turns out to be tomorrow's established order; everybody knows that.

What is conservative now was radical a generation ago.

Today's conservatives frequently are yesterday's kooks.

And hard as it is to believe, today's kooks will become conservatives, or will be thought of highly by conservatives.

This is why I wanted to mention the matter.

I was an admirer of Adlai Stevenson, because he was a kook in politics. I thought we needed a kook after the Truman administration.

Judged by the tone of the nationwide mourning for Gov. Stevenson, a lot of other people must have admired him for trying to use his head for something more exalted than scratching.

Your Aunt Effie sends regards.

COTTON CORNERS UNCLE GEORGE

Right-To-Work Termed Vital In U.S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

America is about to give the world an example of conformity by coercion—how intolerant majorities in Congress and in labor Unions ride roughshod over dissenting minorities of wage earners and compel them to surrender their "freedom of belief" and "freedom of association."

David Lawrence

The House of Representatives and the Senate are engaged now in the process of passing a law taking away from the 50 states of the Union their constitutional right to protect minorities in their employment opportunities.

For, under this measure, unless a person agrees to join a labor union which has a majority status in a plant, he can be dismissed from his job after 30 days. Nineteen states of the Union have forbidden this form of compulsion but, even in this age of demonstrations for so-called civil rights, a basic human freedom of the individual —the right to a job without being forced to sacrifice his beliefs—is about to be taken away.

The general public isn't informed on the issue. If it were, the voters would be protesting now to Congress, and every single representative or senator who has supported such a dicriminatory measure would be marked for defeat in the next election.

THE ARGUMENT usually advanced is that the employer and the labor union would merely be entering into a voluntary agreement for a union shop and that the law doesn't actually require either the union or the employer to make such an agreement.

This is a superficial rationalization. Everybody knows that, when a labor union demands a contract stipulating that a worker must be fired unless he joins the union, the employer has a choice between an expensive strike, with the possibility of being forced out of business, and surrendering to the demands of the labor union. In 99 per cent of the cases, the employer recognizes the facts of modern "democracy" and yields to coercion.

What of the individual? Where can he get protection? The courts offer him no help as yet because the agreement is supposedly voluntary even though, in fact, it obviously isn't.

There are some groups in America which insist that to join a union is contrary to their religious beliefs Yet the proposed legislation ignores this contention, and efforts made to amend the bill to safeguard "freedom of belief" have been unsuccessful.

IN THE SOVIET UNION employment opportunities are to a certain extent controlled by the Communist party In America, a political organization maintained by the labor unions has contributed financial support to the campaigns of enough members of Congress to compel a majority to vote as the labor unions dictate to them.

Observers in other countries, who are often told that the American system permits "freedom of belief" and "freedom of association," will soon be in a position to ask some embarrassing questions when the new law, which plainly authorizes compulsory unionization, is enacted.

The language of the bill is sweeping. It provides:

"That nothing in this act, or in any other statute of the United States or in any constitution or law of any state or political subdivision thereof, shall preclude an employer from making an agreement with a labor organization . . . to require as a condition of employment membership therein . . . if such labor organization is the representative of the employees. . . .

The Supreme Court of the United States in 1937, in upholding the right of a majority of the employes to designate a union to bargain collectively for them, said specifically that the right of the minority as a group or as individuals were not to be disregarded.

CONGRESS IS about to brush aside this interpretation of the constitution by the highest court. Passage of the new law will mark the loss of minority rights and the emergence of the intolerance of majority rule. All this is happening even though the right to work and to keep a job has always been recognized as an individual relationship between employer and employe.

This was supposedly protected from the earliest days of the Republic. The Declaration of Independence sets forth that "all men are created equal" and that among the "unalienable rights" with which they are endowed are "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The Constitution forbids "involuntary servitude." To be compelled to join any organization—social or religious or political or economic — as the price of a job in free America is certainly a form of involuntary servitude.

'I Do Wish You'd Phone When You're Bringing The Junta Home For Dinner.'

Castro Plays Waiting Game In Jamaica

By VICTOR RIESEL

KINGSTON, JAMAICA

Anything James Bond can do, Britain's extra-mysterious counter-espionage, anti-subversion "MI-5" can do better. Yet neither here nor elsewhere in the English-cultured bloc of Caribbean island nations has MI-5 found a single Castro agent worth tailing.

Victor Riesel

Nor have the various secret services of the West Indies nations I've been visiting. Several prime ministers with whom I've had long discussions corroborated this.

No Castro agents or gun squads have been unearthed because there simply are none operating in this vast oceanic non-Hispanic area.

So I dropped over to 12 Camp Rd. to ask the Cuban counsel there, Alfonso Herrera Perdomo, why no subversive agents such as those looting, burning and shooting up Peru and Colombia. Why, I wanted to know, is the Cuban Consulate here so circumspect. After they listened patiently to an explanation of who I was, I was just as patiently told no one would talk to me.

There are others in and out of the governments who did. And all are worried. They see Castro building a romantic tropical Communism in which there is full employment.

YET HERE and in Trinidad and in British Guiana, as well as elsewhere in these islands of proud governments, at least one out of four persons — and in some places one out of less than every three persons — is without jobs.

Here in Jamaica fully 40 per cent of the young women between the ages of 16 and 25 are hungry and unemployed. Fully 25 per cent of the young men in the same age bracket are jobless and drifting.

This can mean much to the people of the U.S. if Fidel Castro's theory is correct. He needs no agents in the West Indies. He need only wait for the young people to grow restless and find their attention riveted to Cuba, 90 miles north. Then the entire West Indies complex could drop into his lap.

How soon? One government leader after another, one businessman after another, one labor leader after another said in reply to my question: How can your country expect us to last more than a decade in such grim circumstances.

JAMAICA'S acting prime minister, Donald Sangster, leader of the Jamaica Labor party, spoke warmly of the U.S. and confidently of the present stability of his little island nation. But he said too:

"We look like the Africans. We think like the British. And we would like to live like the Americans."

He spoke of the growng joblessness. He talked of the impact on strategic Jamaica of the ending by Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz of permission for some 9,000 Jamaican migrant workers to come to the U.S. to pick fruit and other crops in the East. This will mean 9,000 more jobless and the end of a desperately-needed $12 million annual income here. There are other U.S. restrictions, such as the new one on the importation of rum, which will throw more Jamaicans out of work.

TROUBLE IS stirring, though it is still unnoticed in this sunny land. There are the "trouble makers," the 15,000 Rastafarians. This is not yet political. But if joblessness increases they will "bust out." The Rastafarians are a religious - cultural sect which believes in the divinity of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

The good little Emperor has nothing to do with the "Ras," but that does not stop their strange leaders who wear "pleated" beards and multi-colored (red, green, yellow, black) knitted caps. They are a sign of the uneasiness of the times.

Jamaica, the sturdiest of our friends in the West Indies, has the largest labor movement (150,000 strong in two camps) and the University of the West Indies where many labor leaders are trained to run democratic unions and fight off Communist infiltration.

However, Jamaica hardly is the English - speaking West Indies. There is Trinidad-Tobago headed by Dr. Eric Williams. In its capital, Port of Sapin, Prime Minister Williams has reported Communist invasion of the strategic oil refinery field and the vital sugar plantations. There are, of course, powerful Communists in nearby British Guiana seeking to build a labor movement there.

THEY AREN'T agents of Fidel Castro. They are endemic Communists with their eyes glued on one big prize — the Caribbean Congress of Labor, which has 300,000 members.

With this as a base, the Communists could go in for "superversion" of Caribbean governments. That is, infiltrating at the top instead of slowly subverting on the bottom.

Now the Caribbean Congress of Labor is strongly anti-Communist. It has as members many unions in air, land and sea transport, waterfront work, oil refining, mining and other fields on which thousands of U.S. firms and hundreds of thousands of their workers depend.

The leaders of these unions are among the few I've found anywhere in the world who are not snide in their references to the U.S. They are among the few who are staunch friends of the U.S. and inflexible enemies of the Communists.

Yet if their followers fall out of work and the young folks in the many little nations remain jobless and grow weary of hunting for their daily bread and butter, our friends — we too — will lose out to Castro's tropical Communism.

mbrella Of Tranquility

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

That must be the impression of anyone who came of age in the past 12 years which have been a rather tranquil time in dealings between the man in the White House and the men in the Capitol.

But it wasn't always that way. It wasn't that way under the presidency of Franklin D. Roosevelt and of Harry S. Truman who had some monumental battles with Congress.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is the one who raised the umbrella from the moment he took office in 1953. His policy was simple: Don't say anything to irritate the men on the hill.

This pretty much deprived them of a chance or a reason for firing back at him. President John F. Kennedy continued the policy and President Johnson has made a big production of it, and a successful one.

In these first seven months of his first term Johnson has been enormously free of criticism except for some advice by Republicans on how to win the war in Viet Nam.

Johnson plays all the angles to avoid criticism. For example, in the way he announces a decision.

One of the very best ways to cause yourself misery, if you were president, would be to let information leak out on a decision you had made before you announced it.

It would give the critics — ranging from the truly concerned to the disenchanted. The discontented, and the garrulous — a chance to open up on you before you made a decision known.

Johnson has done just the opposite by making surprise announcements, and the absence of criticism shows it has worked well for him.

For example: there was praise from all sides when he suddenly revealed he had plucked Justice Arthur J. Goldberg off the Supreme Court to make him U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

The generally high regard for Goldberg can be considered the main factor in this wide public approval. But there was another: once the announcement was made, criticism couldn't have meant much.

But Johnson could have expected screams about letting the court alone if, in order to learn public opinion, he had leaked a hint of his Goldberg appointment beforehand.

And, once it had happened, for ever after some residue of this discontent would have clung to Johnson and Goldberg.

This kind of trial balloon business — leaking information on a pending decision to take the public pulse — is an old technique of politicians and presidents but Johnson has done little or none of it.

He just lets the public mull over an accomplished fact, knowing that if his decision, say in a new appointment, is good, there won't be much room for the critics anyway.

The Johnsonian cloak of silence until the last minute has another priceless advantage for him: maximum surprise and therefore maximum attention from people who might have said "so what?" if they had heard rumors about it.

Johnson has had few reasons to make unpleasant announcements but when he does, it seems a safe guess to expect him to do it a bit at a time, instead of in one big jolt, until the public gets adjusted to it.

A Workshop For Hancock

A campaign has been launched for the establishment of a Community Sheltered Workshop in Weirton to serve Hancock County — a workshop which would help severely-handicapped persons, including the mentally retarded, to assume a more fitting and more self-satisfying place in the every-day world.

Statistics provided by the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the West Virginia Board of Vocational Education at Charleston show there are approximately 500 persons in the county known to be physically or mentally disabled. Of this number, about 100 are considered in immediate need of sheltered workshop services.

THE FIGURES are challenging. They represent persons who, because of their severe limitations, find it almost impossible to compete against non-handicapped persons for available jobs.

Those sponsoring the Hancock program point out the handicapped "are in need of non-competitive sheltered employment in a workshop, an environment in which they can work at their own pace, earn wages and develop work skills and habits."

With these newly-formed skills, many then would be able to be placed into outside gainful employment. The workshop would be transitional in character.

The referrals are anticipated from several sources, sponsors say. The Hancock County school system would be one. At present, it is operating special education classes for approximately 58 students ranging from ages 8 through 18. These classes are set up for children who find it difficult to function in a normal classroom situation. Referrals also can be expected from the Welfare Department, the County Health Department, the Vocational Rehabilitation Office, the Mental Retardation Council, parents and other interested persons.

WE IN COLUMBIANA County, through the record of the Retarded Children's School at Elkton, are fully aware of what strides can be made in aiding the handicapped under a well-planned, carefully-supervised program.

While the retarded school is smaller in scope than the proposed Hancock facility, it does serve in a sense as a measuring stick for the value of such programs.

If the workshop accomplishments would increase proportionately, there is no question that value would be more than received for the time and effort required.

It should be remembered, however, that quite often the beginning is what could be called the easy phase of such an enterprise. It's after the excitement and warm feeling of doing something worthwhile begins to wear off that the real test sets in and the challenge becomes the greater and the more demanding.

The workshop program deserves the support of all interested in meeting a problem that calls for attention in view of the statistics that have been presented.

Fair Exchange

A heart-felt and cordial Columbiana County welcome to those from Cayuga County in New York who are visiting various homes in the area as part of a 4-H exchange program.

May their stay prove enjoyable and enlightening. And we hope that those from Columbiana County who go to New York later on as the other end of the exchange prove just as satisfactory ambassadors of good will.

With modern miracles of transportation and communications, it's truly "one world." But there's nothing like a heart-to-heart neighborly chat to find out how the other half lives and to cement relations between those from scattered parts of the nation.

Nothing New Since April

The war in Viet Nam will be stepped up, promises President Johnson. The United States does not intend to lose.

Gone now are the dreams of a negotiated peace in Viet Nam inspired by President Johnson's address last April at Johns Hopkins University.

Congress, he said, then, would be asked to authorize a billion-dollar investment in Viet Nam's industrial development.

This sum would be augmented by other nations, including North Viet Nam.

The program would be initiated by the United Nations, not by the United States. It would be a manifestation of international good will.

Republican spokesmen in Congress condemned it as a gesture of appeasement. The United States, they said, was trying to buy peace.

Democratic spokesmen thought of it as a revelation of U.S. strength of purpose and will—a manifesto of peaceful intent.

In many capitals, the offer inspired fresh hope of settlement of an issue that could not be resolved by military force. No one wants the Vietnamese war.

It had been pointed out by Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, among others, that U.S. bombing attacks on North Viet Nam were making it impossible for that country's government to participate in peacemaking moves, which would be viewed as evidence of weakness.

Whatever hopes existed about peacemaking last April have perished in hundreds of bombing raids and thousands of casualties since then.

There has been no response to the peacemaking overtures. The United States and South Viet Nam have continued to kill the Viet Cong and the Viet Cong have continued to do everything to make Southeast Asia untenable for the hated white men —formerly French, now American.

The war has escalated.

The question as August nears is whether the United States can step up its efforts as fast as the enemy can step up his efforts.

President Johnson declares he will double the draft call, but that will not be enough. That will be only the beginning.

Draftees will be no solution for the problem of fighting this most difficult of wars on the other side of the world against a home-based enemy who strikes and vanishes into the forests.

Even regular troops with long training are baffled by this kind of war.

The United States does not intend to lose in Viet Nam.

But it has no formula for winning.

That is the net import of President Johnson's latest revelation. There is nothing new since last April when he proposed cooperative industrial development as a possible way out of a military stalemate.

Nothing came of that. The enemy wasn't impressed.

The enemy thought he could win then. He still does.

Watch It!

When a person has the audacity to enter a bedroom at 3 a.m. and rifle a man's pockets under his very sleeping nose, there's cause for concern and lessons to be learned.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Hope this finds you well. We are the same.

Today I want to set down a few thoughts about kooks.

The thoughts have come to me while reading about Adlai Stevenson, who was a kook.

First, I suppose, we had better define a kook.

The word isn't in my dictionary. But its meaning is clear.

A kook is someone who uses his brain to reach conclusions that do not jibe with the conventional order.

The conventional order also is the conventional wisdom, meaning what most people think because it is what most other people think.

This is why it took so long to sell the idea that blood circulated through the human body, germs caused disease and malaria was not caused by breathing the air from swamps. Most people thought these things were untrue.

It is why so many people had to work so hard to split the atom, quit laughing at hunchbacks, burning witches and sending wretches with contagious diseases to pesthouses.

Thanks to kooks, we got rid of witch doctors, made surgeons wash their hands before delving into our innards and found out that the best way to treat polio patients was to maintain muscle tone, instead of encasing them in plaster casts.

Kooks gave us internal combustion engines, knowledge of the universe, the principle of the lever, Christianity, child labor laws and civil rights.

They gave us laws about abusing animals, women and insane people.

Every invention that has added to our convenience has come from the mind of some kook who thought there might be a better way to do something than the way it always had been done.

The art that enriches our souls was kooky, likewise the music.

Every new departure in literature has been instigated by a kook and carried along by other kooks until it became conventional.

In politics, today's kooky idea frequently turns out to be tomorrow's established order; everybody knows that.

What is conservative now was radical a generation ago.

Today's conservatives frequently are yesterday's kooks.

And hard as it is to believe, today's kooks will become conservatives, or will be thought of highly by conservatives.

This is why I wanted to mention the matter.

I was an admirer of Adlai Stevenson, because he was a kook in politics. I thought we needed a kook after the Truman administration.

Judged by the tone of the nationwide mourning for Gov. Stevenson, a lot of other people must have admired him for trying to use his head for something more exalted than scratching.

Your Aunt Effie sends regards.

Right-To-Work Termed Vital In U.S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

America is about to give the world an example of conformity by coercion—how intolerant majorities in Congress and in labor Unions ride roughshod over dissenting minorities of wage earners and compel them to surrender their "freedom of belief" and "freedom of association."

David Lawrence

The House of Representatives and the Senate are engaged now in the process of passing a law taking away from the 50 states of the Union their constitutional right to protect minorities in their employment opportunities.

For, under this measure, unless a person agrees to join a labor union which has a majority status in a plant, he can be dismissed from his job after 30 days. Nineteen states of the Union have forbidden this form of compulsion but, even in this age of demonstrations for so-called civil rights, a basic human freedom of the individual —the right to a job without being forced to sacrifice his beliefs—is about to be taken away.

The general public isn't informed on the issue. If it were, the voters would be protesting now to Congress, and every single representative or senator who has supported such a dicriminatory measure would be marked for defeat in the next election.

THE ARGUMENT usually advanced is that the employer and the labor union would merely be entering into a voluntary agreement for a union shop and that the law doesn't actually require either the union or the employer to make such an agreement.

This is a superficial rationalization. Everybody knows that, when a labor union demands a contract stipulating that a worker must be fired unless he joins the union, the employer has a choice between an expensive strike, with the possibility of being forced out of business, and surrendering to the demands of the labor union. In 99 per cent of the cases, the employer recognizes the facts of modern "democracy" and yields to coercion.

What of the individual? Where can he get protection? The courts offer him no help as yet because the agreement is supposedly voluntary even though, in fact, it obviously isn't.

There are some groups in America which insist that to join a union is contrary to their religious beliefs Yet the proposed legislation ignores this contention, and efforts made to amend the bill to safeguard "freedom of belief" have been unsuccessful.

IN THE SOVIET UNION employment opportunities are to a certain extent controlled by the Communist party In America, a political organization maintained by the labor unions has contributed financial support to the campaigns of enough members of Congress to compel a majority to vote as the labor unions dictate to them.

Observers in other countries, who are often told that the American system permits "freedom of belief" and "freedom of association," will soon be in a position to ask some embarrassing questions when the new law, which plainly authorizes compulsory unionization, is enacted.

The language of the bill is sweeping. It provides:

"That nothing in this act, or in any other statute of the United States or in any constitution or law of any state or political subdivision thereof, shall preclude an employer from making an agreement with a labor organization . . . to require as a condition of employment membership therein . . . if such labor organization is the representative of the employees. . . .

The Supreme Court of the United States in 1937, in upholding the right of a majority of the employes to designate a union to bargain collectively for them, said specifically that the right of the minority as a group or as individuals were not to be disregarded.

CONGRESS IS about to brush aside this interpretation of the constitution by the highest court. Passage of the new law will mark the loss of minority rights and the emergence of the intolerance of majority rule. All this is happening even though the right to work and to keep a job has always been recognized as an individual relationship between employer and employe.

This was supposedly protected from the earliest days of the Republic. The Declaration of Independence sets forth that "all men are created equal" and that among the "unalienable rights" with which they are endowed are "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The Constitution forbids "involuntary servitude." To be compelled to join any organization—social or religious or political or economic — as the price of a job in free America is certainly a form of involuntary servitude.

Castro Plays Waiting Game In Jamaica

By VICTOR RIESEL

KINGSTON, JAMAICA

Anything James Bond can do, Britain's extra - mysterious counter - espionage, anti - subversion "MI-5" can do better. Yet neither here nor elsewhere in the English - cultured bloc of Caribbean island nations has MI - 5 found a single Castro agent worth tailing.

Victor Riesel

Nor have the various secret services of the West Indies nations I've been visiting. Several prime ministers with whom I've had long discussions corroborated this.

No Castro agents or gun squads have been unearthed because there simply are none operating in this vast oceanic non-Hispanic area.

So I dropped over to 12 Camp Rd. to ask the Cuban counsel there, Alfonso Herrera Perdomo, why no subversive agents such as those looting, burning and shooting up Peru and Colombia. Why, I wanted to know, is the Cuban Consulate here so circumspect. After they listened patiently to an explanation of who I was, I was just as patiently told no one would talk to me.

There are others in and out of the governments who did. And all are worried. They see Castro building a romantic tropical Communism in which there is full employment.

YET HERE and in Trinidad and in British Guiana, as well as elsewhere in these islands of proud governments, at least one out of four persons — and in some places one out of less than every three persons — is without jobs.

Here in Jamaica fully 40 per cent of the young women between the ages of 16 and 25 are hungry and unemployed. Fully 25 per cent of the young men in the same age bracket are jobless and drifting.

This can mean much to the people of the U.S. if Fidel Castro's theory is correct. He needs no agents in the West Indies. He need only wait for the young people to grow restless and find their attention riveted to Cuba, 90 miles north. Then the entire West Indies complex could drop into his lap.

How soon? One government leader after another, one businessman after another, one labor leader after another said in reply to my question: How can your country expect us to last more than a decade in such grim circumstances.

JAMAICA'S acting prime minister, Donald Sangster, leader of the Jamaica Labor party, spoke warmly of the U.S. and confidently of the present stability of his little island nation. But he said too:

"We look like the Africans. We think like the British. And we would like to live like the Americans."

He spoke of the growng joblessness. He talked of the impact on strategic Jamaica of the ending by Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz of permission for some 9,000 Jamaican migrant workers to come to the U.S. to pick fruit and other crops in the East. This will mean 9,000 more jobless and the end of a desperately-needed $12 million annual income here. There are other U.S. restrictions, such as the new one on the importation of rum, which will throw more Jamaicans out of work.

TROUBLE IS stirring, though it is still unnoticed in this sunny land. There are the "trouble makers," the 15,000 Rastafarians. This is not yet political. # FCC Won't Cite One Firm Owning TV Station, CATV

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission says it will not impose across-the-board rules against one company owning both a television station and a Community Antenna Television system.

In handing down the 5-2 decision Wednesday the FCC made clear it was reserving the right to investigate any cases of abuse that come to its attention.

The FCC said the decision followed a 15-month study of the possibility that common ownership might lead to abuses threatening competition in broadcasting.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has decided to abandon the Mauler air defense missile project on which it has spent $200 million. It estimated that another $180 million would have been needed to complete development.

"Technical difficulties associated with mounting a fire control radar and guided missile launcher on the same vehicle caused significant delays and increased costs," the Army announced Wednesday.

State To Rest Case In Tampa Police Slaying

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — The state expected to rest its case today in the first-degree murder trial of Billie Ray Babson, accused of slaying a Tampa policeman.

After a three-hour legal battle Wednesday night, Babson's confession was admitted as evidence despite defense pleas that it was obtained without telling the defendant of his right to have a lawyer.

Babson, 29, an iron worker from Cincinnati, Ohio, is charged with slaying William Krikava, 32, after the officer surprised Babson and his wife during an alleged robbery at a fashionable Tampa dress shop.

In the confession, Babson stated that he had a gun when the officer walked into the store and that Krikava started shooting.

"That's all I remember," he said.

Babson and his wife Janet, 33, were charged with first-degree murder. Mrs. Babson, free under $18,000 bond, faces trial in September.

Swedish Woman Gives Birth To Quintuplets, But Two Die

FALUN, Sweden (AP) — A Swedish woman reported to have been given hormones that can cause multiple births had quintuplets today, but two of them died shortly before noon.

A statement from Falun General Hospital said a boy and a girl died. Two girls and a boy, still alive, were in oxygen tents.

The hospital, withholding the woman's name, said the quintuplets were born 11 weeks prematurely.

They were the second set of quints to be born this week. Four boys and a girl were born Tuesday to Mrs. Samuel Lawson, who received the same hormone treatment, in Auckland, New Zealand.

Three other sets of quintuplets are known to be living.

The Auckland quintuplets are doing fine, a hospital announcement said.

The newspaper Expressen reported the Falun mother had been treated for a hormone deficiency by Prof Carl-Axel Gemzell of Uppsala University.

This treatment of infertile women consists of administering a drug produced from hormones from the human pituitary glands at the base of the brain. The method was pioneered five years ago by Gemzell.

Experts say the dosage for each individual varies and that there is no certain method of determining exactly how much hormone is required to produce an ovum.

Lima Threatens Abandonment Of Its Police Force

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Lima officials, angry over Allen County's refusal to meet its budget request, threatened Wednesday to shut down the city's police department and leave law enforcement activities up to the county.

"We're considering withdrawing from the local government fund and abandoning our half-million-dollar police force," City Auditor Robert Rentz said at a county budget commission hearing.

Rentz and Finance Committee Chairman Neal O'Connell said that over the past five years the amount of local funds allocated for Lima has been reduced by a total of 14 per cent. O'Connell charged the Budget Commission was penalizing the city for having an income tax.

FCC Won't Cite One Firm Owning TV Station, CATV

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission says it will not impose across-the-board rules against one company owning both a television station and a Community Antenna Television system.

In handing down the 5-2 decision Wednesday the FCC made clear it was reserving the right to investigate any cases of abuse that come to its attention.

The FCC said the decision followed a 15-month study of the possibility that common ownership might lead to abuses threatening competition in broadcasting.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has decided to abandon the Mauler air defense missile project on which it has spent $200 million. It estimated that another $180 million would have been needed to complete development.

"Technical difficulties associated with mounting a fire control radar and guided missile launcher on the same vehicle caused significant delays and increased costs," the Army announced Wednesday.

Library Reading Club Now At Halfway Mark

The halfway mark has been reached in the summer reading club at Carnegie Public Library, Mrs. Hilda McEwen, assistant librarian, pointed out today.

She urged the 1,800 girls and boys who are participating to continue with their reading. The book score to date for the two teams which were organized earlier stands at World's Fair, 3,648, and Disneyland, 3,511.

A party for those who have read 30 or more books will be held in the fall.

Fire Destroys Garage, Shed At Wellsville

A garage and shed were destroyed by fire in Wellsville early today and a man escaped injury in a gasoline fumes explosion Wednesday evening.

Wellsville firemen said the garage and shed at the rear of 2008 Danbury Ave. were destroyed at 9:12 a. m. today. The home is vacant.

The large frame garage caught fire and ignited the nearby shed. Both burned to the ground. Firemen received a belated alarm and said they didn't have a chance to extinguish the fire. They played water on the home to keep it from burning.

No estimate has been made of the loss.

Rocco Volino of Russell Heights escaped injury when gasoline fumes exploded as he was cleaning machinery parts at his self-service car wash at 22nd St. and Clark Ave. Wednesday at 6:47 p. m.

Firemen said the fumes were ignited by the flame in a hot water tank.

The volunteers were called Wednesday night at 9:05 to extinguish a pile of burning brush along Saline Township Rd. 306, near Wellsville. Firemen were on the call for 90 minutes. No damage was reported.

ently the victim, was knocked off his bicycle and the bike was hurled into the air, almost hitting the street light, she said.

Asst. Fire Chief Gerald Goodballet, whose crew was on duty, said Robert Fotheringham told officials at first that he was pushing his brother on the bike past the site when they heard a rumbling sound and the blast knocked his brother to the ground and threw the bike into the air.

Later, Fotheringham and Slagle said they ran across the street when they heard the victim screaming.

Goodballet said about half an inch of gasoline and sediment remained in the tank when firemen used a long pole to check the contents. There was a strong odor of gasoline on the pole, he said.

To prevent a reoccurrence of the near-tragedy, firemen used approximately 500 gallons of water to fill the tank.

ficial approval by the State Controlling Board was made July 20, according to a certificate presented the board.

Besides the millage necessary to retire the bonds, the community also must approve another half mill for the same period, either 20 or 23 years, to pay back part of the money provided by the state.

IF FIGURED on a 20-year interest - free basis, this would total approximately $127,853. The actual total received from the state at the end of the period then would be $206,085.

Mrs. Margaret Lloyd, board member, opposed both resolutions. She commented there are "too many strings attached." Mrs. Lloyd also suggested other possibilities be investigated and that the board create a "desire" among the public to build new schools. She said, "I don't see any sense spending money for an issue that will not pass."

Later, after the resolutions were adopted, Mrs. Lloyd agreed to accept the majority vote and work for the passage of the bond issue.

Dr. Janis Lauva, vice president, commented, "some action has to be taken, one way or another."

"I believe the issue will pass. Let's allow the public to decide. If it is turned down, we can go from there," he continued, pointing to the need of better buildings.

Daniel MacLean, another member, said he is not "100 per cent for the state proposal, but we have no other recourse. We need the buildings and we have nothing better to offer." He pointed to the loss of tax revenue the city will suffer when Route 7 is relocated.

Ferrall said the state is not going to change its plans. He said he feels the community would be better off with schools at each end of town, but realizes the state will not approve of this.

"We can't do anything without state finances," Ferrall stated.

Dr. Lauva said, "I can't see what we can accomplish by waiting. Even if all goes smoothly, it will be another year or more before we actually get started. I can't see anything better in the near future."

All the board members pointed to the need for improved buildings.

A discussion was held on ways of educating the general public to the need and of getting residents to visit the buildings to see firsthand the existing conditions.

Midland Sets Peanut Hunts For Playlots

Peanut hunts have been scheduled at each playground in Midland Friday evening, according to Hank Kuzma, director of the recreation program.

At the annual dressup show at the 7th St. Playground last week, Kim Lozzi was named as winner in the prettiest costume category, with her Spanish dancer outfit.

Joe Klemmer Jr. had the most unusual costume, John LeMasters the funniest and Kim Granito, age 1, was the youngest participant.

Kuzma said championships had been decided at the Heights playground, with Jerry Justice the winner in the carrom tournament, Ray Melnich in checkers and Debbie Hlopek in Chinese checkers.

Goldwater's 'Fair' Following Operation

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Barry Goldwater will remain in St. Joseph's Hospital well into August recuperating from an operation Wednesday to eliminate neck and back pains, an associate says.

The surgery on vertebrae in the lower neck required nearly four and a half hours. His condition later was listed as fair.

"It may be five to seven days before we know if it (the operation) was successful," said Dr. John A. Eisenbeiss, the surgeon.

Library Reading Club Now At Halfway Mark

The halfway mark has been reached in the summer reading club at Carnegie Public Library, Mrs. Hilda McEwen, assistant librarian, pointed out today.

She urged the 1,800 girls and boys who are participating to continue with their reading. The book score to date for the two teams which were organized earlier stands at World's Fair, 3,648, and Disneyland, 3,511.

A party for those who have read 30 or more books will be held in the fall.

CAROL JEAN ERWIN
Will Wed August 7.

Engagement Set By Chester Girl, Pennsylvanian

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Erwin of 93 Railroad St., Chester, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Carol Jean Erwin, to Harry W. Campbell of Eldersville, Pa.

The open church ceremony will be performed Aug. 7 at 6:30 p. m. at the Chester Methodist Church by the Rev. Forrest J. Campbell.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Chester High School and the Lewis-Weinberger & Hill Academy of Cosmetology. She is presently an operator at the Jo Anne Maria Styling Center.

Her fiance is a construction worker in Weirton and served with the Army in Korea. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Campbell of Eldersville and attended Burgettstown High School.

Miss Mary Olive Laughlin And Rene Neuber Marry

Miss Mary Olive Laughlin, daughter of Mrs. Elmer Laughlin of Georgetown and the late Elmer Laughlin, became the bride of Rene Neuber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blech of Route 1, Aliquippa, July 24 in the Georgetown Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stanton Rivers, pastor of the Midland Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Alexander Haines, pastor of the Georgetown Methodist Church.

Wedding music was presented by the church organist, Mrs. Louis Wagner. Multi - colored gladioli decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her brother, Paul David Laughlin, the bride wore a white nylon over acetate street-length dress with a small white veiled hat. She carried a white Bible topped with two white orchids and white streamers. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom.

A reception for 75 was held in the church social room following the ceremony. Decorations were pink and white streamers and wedding bells. A two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the bride's table.

Reception aides were Mrs. William Reckner, Mrs. George Howlett, Miss Flora Nash, Mrs. Harry Reckner and Mrs. Paul David Laughlin.

The bride is a graduate of South Side High School at Hookstown and the bridegroom a graduate of Hopewell High School, both with the class of 1964. She was formerly employed at the Hill and Dale Restaurant, Route 1, Clinton. Mr. Neuber is a serviceman at Wiley's Mobil Homes in Chattanooga, Tenn.

The couple will reside in Rossville, Ga.

New Provision Added To Anti-Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special provision to make jobs for chronically unemployed poor adult workers has been added to the $1.9 billion antipoverty bill.

The Senate Labor Committee wrote the provision in Wednesday. It would provide $150 million to be used on jobs in such federal fields as conservation and on state or local projects such as park improvement and highway beautification.

Women Setting Sights On All-Male Saloons

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Women for Equal Eating threatened to invade more of San Francisco's all-male saloons today after victoriously picketing the financial district's 42 Club.

The modern suffrageettes were allowed Wednesday to enter the bar-restaurant any day after 3 p.m. They had picketed the men-only club with the help of sympathetic males for only a half hour before owner Milos Stika surrendered.

1776 On Television

The man who has given television such documentary achievement as the "Victory at Sea" series and "The Coming of Christ," "He Is Risen," "The Real West," is quietly at work on a series devoted to what he regards as one of the most neglected of historical subjects: the American Revolution.

Richard Doan

Donald B. Hyatt, executive producer of NBC's "Project XX," hopes the network will let him turn out at least 13 half-hours focussed on America's founding fathers.

The producer is well into research on the undertaking. He envisions Ben Franklin as the first Revolutionary leader to be studied, with George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and others to follow.

HYATT SAYS he would neither attempt to dramatize each life nor utilize the actorless technique he pioneered of still-pictures - in - motion relying chiefly on paintings, sculpture, and photographs.

"We would employ an actor for each program," Hyatt reported, "but we would not have him impersonate the subject. The actor would be in modern dress. He would be someone we felt to be compatible with the subject. We would have him visit geographical locations figuring in the subject's story and have him recall the words, say of Ben Franklin at a certain occasion."

The actor would be a story-teller, or guide, rather than a narrator.

"It's frightening how little most of us know—including myself—about the American Revolution," Hyatt observed. "I've found that foreigners who come over here often know more than we do about it."

He said that to the best of his recollection there have been a few one-shot programs dealing with the Revolutionary period, but no TV series about it.

HYATT DISCLOSED that he is also contemplating a documentary on "man's relationship with the sea" in terms of those who go "Down to the Sea in Ships." He described what he had in mind as a Joseph Conrad approach. Hyatt himself is an inveterate Long Island Sound boatman.

The producer is just back from Montana where he filmed actor Walter Brennan's narration for a forthcoming "Project XX" hour about the American Indian.

This and a new Biblical study, "The Law and the Prophets," are both expected to be aired by NBC early next year.

LEXINGTON, MASS., where one of the first skirmishes of the American Revolution was fought, was visited recently by an NBC News documentary team—but not for the purpose of recalling the town's early history.

Writer - director - producer Frank de Felitta wanted to turn his cameras on Lexington's teen-agers."

"We thought it was a good place," he explained, "because it's historic — a place where some of the original promises were made—and in a way we wanted to go back 190 years later and see what had happened.

"Also, there are so many teen - agers there, more than 4,000 in a community of 33,000. It's a commuter community now, a bedroom for Boston. We wanted to photograph and talk with kids under tensions such as are occurring throughout the country."

HE FELT that the Lexington teen-agers are a "rather pure strain . . . mostly middle and upper class" and there's no racial problem there which would dominate the issues.

"We went where the kids congregate," de Felitta reported, "and we got some pretty candid stuff. I think we brought back some genuine and sincere statements (by the teen-agers) that will enlighten parents all over the country."

The producer said the hour-long special is tentatively booked for a Jan. 9 airing. He hopes to have Frank McGee assigned to narrate it. The tentative title is "The World of the Teen-Agers."

De Felitta has turned out such past NBC documentaries as "Emergency Ward," "The Chosen Child," "Battle of the Bulge," and "The Stately Ghosts of England."

Postmasters Bill Waits Johnson Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmasters in towns and cities will have a five-day, 40-hour work week if President Johnson signs a bill before him.

The Senate finished congressional action on the measure Wednesday. It applies to about 25,000 postmasters in the first, second and third class offices that cover cities and towns of any size.

Husband, 62, Killed, Wife Hurt In Wreck

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—Charles K. Wolf, 62, of Medina was killed and his wife seriously injured in a two-car collision on Ohio 3 in Medina County Wednesday night.

Highway Patrolmen said their car was hit headon by an auto driven by Louis R. Hay, 34, of Seville, who escaped serious injury and was charged by the patrol of driving left of center.

Another Cleanup Day To Be Held At Church

LISBON — A volunteer clean-up work day will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Williamsport church in Beaver Creek State Park.

The church has been acquired by the Columbiana County Forest and Parks Council to be operated as a non-denominational center for campers and park visitors.

By the end of this week, the ceiling will have been painted and the papering of the walls completed, Floyd Lower of the forest and parks council said.

Homesickness Hits Ohio Job Corps Camp

Director Brian Stout said 25 youths have left the camp but, he added, there "is no dropout problem. Most of them have never been away from home before and there is a problem of adjustment."

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Child Gets Money Sense With Allowance

From various discussions and rough surveys on allowances, it appears that most parents think of an allowance as a definite amount of money regularly given a child for a certain period, usually a week, to spend as he pleases. From this regular amount the child is supposed to learn naturally to do some budgeting for himself.

Dr. Garry Myers

There is on record a letter by the late President John F. Kennedy when he was eleven years old, to his father, asking that his weekly allowance of 40 cents be increased by 30 cents, "for me to buy Scout things and pay my own way around."

According to a recent survey on allowances in the Wall Street Journal, the allowances for eight of the nine children of Senator Robert F. Kennedy "range from five cents a week for two - year - old Christopher and 25 cents for five - year - old Mary to 95 cents for 12 - year-old Joseph and $1.05 for 14-year-old Cathleen."

ONE MAY assume that these children, and John F. Kennedy when a boy, had to do their own budgeting after receiving a fixed small weekly amount. Appreciably most parents, indeed, think of an allowance as pocket money not including regular necessary expenditures.

However, a few parents do budget with the child his regular necessary expenditures for a certain period, then add to the total amount thereof an amount for him to spend as he pleases (pocket money). Then the aggregate amount is considered as the regular allowance.

From time to time these parents review with the child his regular needs and consider his amount of pocket money. (Otherwise the parents would have to dole out to the child amounts for his daily needs.)

From time to time, as the child operating on the proposed budgeted allowance grows older, these parents include in his regular needs some of his clothing, and finally all his clothing and the like.

BY THE time this child is in high school and college he may thus have a budgeted allowance to include all his expenditures plus a reasonable amount for pocket money. You and I have known a few college students who have a budgeted allowance which includes tuition, books, board and room.

At the beginning of a college term this youth may receive a total amount to cover everything for the semester or year. He receives a check which he deposits in the college town or city bank and pays all his bills and personal expenditures from it. When he operates well on such a plan he derives excellent experience in handling money.

Some other parents, beginning while the child is in the grades, require their child to do certain chores in order to receive an allowance. This rarely works well as it obviously is too hard to enforce. Besides the child should help at home because he is a member of the family.

My bulletins, "Allowances," and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," and "Self - Reliance," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Wheeling Steel Reports Sales Up, Net Income Down

WHEELING (AP) — Sales were up but net income down for Wheeling Steel Co. during the first half of 1965.

The company announced Wednesday that sales during the first six months totaled $147.8 million, compared with $126.6 million for the same period last year.

Net income was $1,248,000, down from $2,623,000 during the same six months last year. Earnings per common share were 14 cents, compared with 84 cents last year.

For the second quarter of 1965, Wheeling showed a loss of $205,000. In the same period last year, the company had a net income of $1,482,000 or 50 cents a share.

Net sales for the second quarter were $72.3 million, up from $68.1 million during the quarter in 1964.

Another Cleanup Day To Be Held At Church

LISBON — A volunteer cleanup work day will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Williamsport church in Beaver Creek State Park.

The church has been acquired by the Columbiana County Forest and Parks Council to be operated as a non-denominational center for campers and park visitors.

By the end of this week, the ceiling will have been painted and the papering of the walls completed, Floyd Lower of the forest and parks council said.

Homesickness Hits Ohio Job Corps Camp

Director Brian Stout said 25 youths have left the camp but, he added, there "is no dropout problem. Most of them have never been away from home before and there is a problem of adjustment."

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Child Gets Money Sense With Allowance

From various discussions and rough surveys on allowances, it appears that most parents think of an allowance as a definite amount of money regularly given a child for a certain period, usually a week, to spend as he pleases. From this regular amount the child is supposed to learn naturally to do some budgeting for himself.

Dr. Garry Myers

There is on record a letter by the late President John F. Kennedy when he was eleven years old, to his father, asking that his weekly allowance of 40 cents be increased by 30 cents. "for me to buy Scout things and pay my own way around."

According to a recent survey on allowances in the Wall Street Journal, the allowances for eight of the nine children of Senator Robert F. Kennedy "range from five cents a week for two - year - old Christopher and 25 cents for five - year - old Mary to 95 cents for 12 - year-old Joseph and $1.05 for 14-year-old Cathleen."

ONE MAY assume that these children, and John F. Kennedy when a boy, had to do their own budgeting after receiving a fixed small weekly amount. Appreciably most parents, indeed, think of an allowance as pocket money not including regular necessary expenditures.

However, a few parents do budget with the child his regular necessary expenditures for a certain period, then add to the total amount thereof an amount for him to spend as he pleases (pocket money). Then the aggregate amount is considered as the regular allowance.

From time to time these parents review with the child his regular needs and consider his amount of pocket money. (Otherwise the parents would have to dole out to the child amounts for his daily needs.)

From time to time, as the child operating on the proposed budgeted allowance grows older, these parents include in his regular needs some of his clothing, and finally all his clothing and the like.

BY THE time this child is in high school and college he may thus have a budgeted allowance to include all his expenditures plus a reasonable amount for pocket money. You and I have known a few college students who have a budgeted allowance which includes tuition, books, board and room.

At the beginning of a college term this youth may receive a total amount to cover everything for the semester or year. He receives a check which he deposits in the college town or city bank and pays all his bills and personal expenditures from it. When he operates well on such a plan he derives excellent experience in handling money.

Some other parents, beginning while the child is in the grades, require their child to do certain chores in order to receive an allowance. This rarely works well as it obviously is too hard to enforce. Besides the child should help at home because he is a member of the family.

My bulletins, "Allowances," and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," and "Self - Reliance," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Wheeling Steel Reports Sales Up, Net Income Down

WHEELING (AP — Sales were up but net income down for Wheeling Steel Co. during the first half of 1965.

The company announced Wednesday that sales during the first six months totaled $147.8 million, compared with $126.6 million for the same period last year.

Net income was $1,248,000, down from $2,623,000 during the same six months last year. Earnings per common share were 14 cents, compared with 84 cents last year.

For the second quarter of 1965, Wheeling showed a loss of $205,000. In the same period last year, the company had a net income of $1,482,000 or 50 cents a share.

Net sales for the second quarter were $72.3 million, up from $68.1 million during the quarter in 1964.

Retaliation Proof Of Policy

Decision On Reservists Tied To Bombing Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's decision to avoid calling reservists to fight in Viet Nam was influenced, in part, by Tuesday's attack on two mobile missile sites near Hanoi by American fighter bombers.

Johnson felt that direct and quick retaliation against the missile launchers that had bagged a U.S. jet bomber Sunday was sufficient proof of what he terms the nation's "no retreat" policy in Viet Nam.

Had the launchers not been discovered and attacked, it was said, Johnson probably would have felt compelled to mobilize some reservists and National Guardsmen as a display of national determination.

The administration view seemed to be that the assault on the launchers would be weighed most seriously in the Communist camp because, so far as is known, the United States struck without knowing or caring whether the installations were manned by Russians, Communist Chinese or North Vietnamese.

If this is correct, and high administration officials said Wednesday night the missile base episode was a turning point in Johnson's deliberations, the end result also coincided neatly with the President's personal inclinations.

Johnson has seemed anxious to avoid, to the degree possible, any direct provocation of the Communist camp. And, officials said, he was reluctant to order a mobilization that might have put the country on a semiwar footing and made any peace talks — the ultimate aim — more difficult.

One of the mobile missile bases was reported destroyed and the second damaged. Three American fighter bombers were listed by the Pentagon as shot down by conventional antiaircraft fire during the 46-plane attack.

After weighing all factors in a solid week of conferences, Johnson limited his Viet Nam policy actions — announced at a news conference Wednesday — to a doubling of the monthly draft call to 35,000 men and quick increase of 50,000 in the size of the American force in South Viet Nam.

Johnson also said he would ask Congress this year for additional money to help finance expanded military commitments. Officials said the amount would run between $1 billion and $2 billion.

He said more troops would be dispatched even after the projected level of 125,000 is reached.

Officials said Johnson's latest move will have as much immediate impact as any broader mobilization. For one thing, they said, there would be a considerable time lag before any reservists could reach Viet Nam, whereas some seasoned regular troops can move in almost at once.

Draft-Age Youths' Reaction Varies On Johnson Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Some draft-age youths were reluctant, but others responded favorably today to President Johnson's call for a doubling of the draft. "We have been pushed around and we have taken too much from the Communists," one of them said.

Some opposition to the military buildup in Viet Nam was evident in a nationwide Associated Press survey.

John Russell, 19, a Manhattan office boy, put it this way: "He (Johnson) said he doesn't want to see young people die, but the way to do that is to end the war. You can't stop the war by sending in more soldiers."

One of those who didn't relish being drafted, but saw the need for it, was Ron Hansley, 21, a grocery clerk. He got his draft notice last April when he dropped to a part-time student at the University of Washington.

"I wouldn't care to be drafted," Hansley said. "I've never looked forward to the service, but I feel it is an obligation. I feel the United States should stay in Viet Nam because no one else seems to be in a position to help or has taken any initiative."

"It's time we show them (the Communists) the kind of nation we are," he said.

That was the case with Tom Munzig, 19, of Los Angeles, a college sophomore who plans to enter UCLA after two years at a junior college.

Tom Mann, 19, of Pacific Palisades, Calif., a sophomore at Santa Monica City College, said: "I'm kissing all my girl friends goodbye, and I'm trying my best to get into the Air National Guard."

Contests Feature Grange Meeting

LISBON — Contests highlighted Wednesday's meeting of the Mt. Nebo Grange here.

Mrs. Guy Frantz won four out of six categories in the flower contest — six-inch arrangement, centerpiece, miniature and wildflower arrangement. Other flower winners were Mrs. George Van Fossan, old-fashioned container, and Mrs. Harmon Handwork, best single flower.

Mrs. Viola Harrold won the apron contest and Mrs. Howard Wilhelm the cookie contest.

General safety was stressed at the meeting. A skit, "Careless Driving Convention," was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rudebock and George Van Fossan.

Mrs. Harrold discussed safety in relation to farm life, the home, and the highway. Guy Frantz talked on "The Tragedy of Error."

A luncheon was served by the Home Economics Committee to the 22 present.

The Fairfield - Waterford Board of Education today certified a $320,000 bond issue to the County Election Board for a ballot place at the Nov. 2 general election.

The bond issue, which would run for 21 years, would provide funds for construction of an addition to the New Waterford School, to remodel and rehabilitate the Fairfield Schools, to clear and improve the New Waterford site and equip the buildings.

Four levies were certified to the board Wednesday afternoon.

The Southern Local School District filed resolutions asking ballot places for a new 3-mill current expense levy and renewal of a 1.8-mill current expense levy. Both would be in effect for 10 years.

The village of Salineville certified a resolution asking renewal of a 1.5-mill street lighting levy for five years and Madison Township trustees certified a new 0.8 of a mill levy for five years to provide police protection.

Pups Left Motherless Look For New Homes

Eight pups who have lost their mother are looking for a home.

Mrs. Isabell Howell of Price St. Ext. said the three-week-old puppies — five males and three females — were left motherless when her wire-haired "Susie" disappeared Saturday.

Mrs. Howell would like to have "Susie" back. But she finds the task of caring for four boys and eight pups too much for one mother, so she is offering the pups to anyone who wants them.

poured into Viet Nam to reinforce the 550,000 South Vietnamese troops and the Americans already there or due to arrive under current plans.

The buildup in South Viet Nam is beginning to drain the strategic reserve of regular Army divisions based in the United States for use around the world.

Johnson faced two alternatives for rebuilding this strategic reserve — either by a combination of the heavier draft and stimulated enlistments or by callups of thousands of reservists and National Guardsmen.

U.S. officials said Johnson decided against calling reservists and guardsmen to the colors because he and his advisers concluded such action was not necessary at this time.

Plans for calling reervists are on the shelf, but the possibility they may be ordered up later remains.

When intensive planning for a possible muster began several weeks ago, the armed services put in tentative "shopping lists" totaling more than 220,000 guardsmen and reservists.

Pentagon authorities hope that enlistments in all the service will increase under the spur of sharply increased draft calls.

The draft will rocket to 35,000 inductions a month starting probably with the October call. This is the biggest monthly quota since late in the Korean War. Draft officials said they would have no trouble delivering the extra men, but it may be more difficult to get deferments.

For months, 17,000 men have been drafted monthly. This was a big jump over the 3,000 level of last February, but it wasn't due to Viet Nam — it was because enlistments fell off as rumors spread that the draft would be ended.

For the first time in nine years, the Navy will take men through the draft — 4,500 in October. Neither the Air Force nor the Marines now intend to draw on Selective Service.

Pentagon authorities have decided against asking Congress for legislation permitting them to freeze Army and Air Force enlisted men and officers now on active duty. The Navy already has this statutory authority and may resort to it.

Increased regular forces would be financed through deficiency funding authority, and the money would not come out of an anticipated budget increase of between $1 billion and $2 billion.

Students, Married Men May Miss Draft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's draft-age students and married men probably will not be called, despite an increased state quota, Selective Service headquarters here says.

Col. Raymond Clouse made that comment Wednesday after President Johnson announced he would ask the nation's draft boards to double their quotas because of the Viet Nam crisis.

Col. Clouse said he had no details yet but he expected Ohio's monthly quota to double to about 1,600 men. The state has supplied from 700 to 900 men a month the past six months, he said.

Williamson To Seek Post At Wellsville

Wellsville gained its first candidate for Board of Education when Jay Walter Williamson filed Wednesday afternoon with the County Election Board for one of two seats to be filled at the Nov. 2 general election.

Four other candidates also filed, boosting to 104 the number of nonpartisan candidates seeking posts in townships, school districts and villages with less than 2,000 population.

The other entrants are Paul Gipp, United Local school board; Robert B. Powers, Columbiana Exempted Village Board of Education; Fred Detchon, Washington Township trustee, and Ralph W. Wagenhouser, Salem Township trustee.

Williamson, a teller at the Wellsville Branch of the Potters Bank & Trust Co., is making his first bid for public office. He is a former Pennsylvania Railroad detective and is active in the Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge. He is a member of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church, Masonic Lodge and Elks Lodge. He and his wife and son, 4, reside at 2037 Clark Ave.

Area Boys Held By FBI Agents For 2 Car Thefts

EAST PALESTINE — Federal Bureau of Investigation agents today are holding three district youths in connection with the theft of two autos—one from a parking lot here and the other at Niles.

The youths were turned over to the FBI by police at Hamburg, N. Y., Wednesday.

They are charged with taking a 1959 auto of Thomas Cartwright of W. Martin St. from the lot at the A. & P. Store where he works and abandoning it at Niles Tuesday night.

Suspension Canceled

EAST PALESTINE — A suspension of the liquor permit of Myrtle Souturas of 102 N. Market St., ordered by the Ohio Department of Liquor Control for delinquent sales tax payments, has been rescinded following payment of the assessments.

the position of the President and in support of the principles he enunciated" in his news conference on Viet Nam.

Democrats, who could outvote the Republicans 33-17, favored GOP Gov. John H. Reed of Maine for the chairmanship. It is alternated yearly between Republican and Democratic members. Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California said, however that Gov. John Connally of Texas, chairman of the Democratic caucus, had passed the word to "let the Republicans have anyone they want."

With bids from five states, the conference may postpone for a later executive committee decision the choice of next year's meeting place. Louisiana, Ohio, Arkansas, Florida and California are bidding.

A committee headed by Democratic Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey has recommended against any legislation curbing the early projection of election returns and victory predictions on television. The group said it felt the impact of such predictions on voters in the western part of the country was "negligible."

After a question and answer period Wednesday, with R. Sargent Shriver Jr., head of the federal antipoverty program, the governors adopted a resolution expressing their "firm opposition" to any reduction in their power to veto projects in their states.

Quake Rocks Aleutian Chain's Western Tip

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—An earthquake rocked the Aleutian Chain Wednesday night near the Rat Islands on the chain's western tip.

No injuries or damages were reported.

The quake was felt at military installations in the area. One report from Shemya said, "It was a real good one."

The earthquake was another in a series of sharp jolts which have struck a relatively small area in the western chain this year.

Palestine Youth Hurled From Car

An East Palestine youth apparently escaped serious injury when thrown from his auto after it struck the guard rail on the medial strip of the city freeway early this morning, police reported.

Lyle Russell Jenkins, 20, of 244 S. Market St. told officers he would go to the hospital, but hospital authorities said they had no record of his treatment.

Jenkins told officers he was slowing down about 100 feet north of the eastbound ramp when the rear end of the 1961 compact fishtailed. He told police the "fishtailing" has happened previously.

Jenkins said the car apparently swung around and hit the medial strip, but added that he couldn't be certain for he was thrown out the door on the passenger side.

Democratic leaders beat down all Republican efforts to amend the bill. But under the Senate's less rigid procedures, Republicans are certain to offer a long string of changes.

These include exempting any worker from union membership on religious grounds, requiring secret balloting whenever a union seeks bargaining rights, forbidding racial discrimination by unions and prohibiting the use of union dues for political purposes.

Democrats contended in the House debate that these matters are already covered in federal law.

With bids from five states, the conference may postpone for a later executive committee decision the choice of next year's meeting place. Louisiana, Ohio, Arkansas, Florida and California are bidding.

A committee headed by Democratic Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey has recommended against any legislation curbing the early projection of election returns and victory predictions on television. The group said it felt the impact of such predictions on voters in the western part of the country was "negligible."

After a question and answer period Wednesday, with R. Sargent Shriver Jr., head of the federal antipoverty program, the governors adopted a resolution expressing their "firm opposition" to any reduction in their power to veto projects in their states.

Quake Rocks Aleutian Chain's Western Tip

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—An earthquake rocked the Aleutian Chain Wednesday night near the Rat Islands on the chain's western tip.

No injuries or damages were reported.

The quake was felt at military installations in the area. One report from Shemya said, "It was a real good one."

The earthquake was another in a series of sharp jolts which have struck a relatively small area in the western chain this year.

Fastest population growth in the world is in Central America's Costa Rica, with an annual population jump of 4 per cent. Communist China is second with an annual increase of 3.6 per cent and Mexico is third with 3.42 per cent.

Palestine Youth Hurled From Car

An East Palestine youth apparently escaped serious injury when thrown from his auto after it struck the guard rail on the medial strip of the city freeway early this morning, police reported.

Lyle Russell Jenkins, 20, of 244 S. Market St. told officers he would go to the hospital, but hospital authorities said they had no record of his treatment.

Jenkins told officers he was slowing down about 100 feet north of the eastbound ramp when the rear end of the 1961 compact fishtailed. He told police the "fishtailing" has happened previously.

Jenkins said the car apparently swung around and hit the medial strip, but added that he couldn't be certain for he was thrown out the door on the passenger side.

an irresponsible act but not an irrevocable one. For the benefit of the labor bosses that select group would deny freedom of choice to the working man. Let me make it clear that the battle has just begun."

Democratic leaders beat down all Republican efforts to amend the bill. But under the Senate's less rigid procedures, Republicans are certain to offer a long string of changes.

These include exempting any worker from union membership on religious grounds, requiring secret balloting whenever a union seeks bargaining rights, forbidding racial discrimination by unions and prohibiting the use of union dues for political purposes.

Lisbon Church Unit Meets; Other Clubs Hold Sessions

The Women's Association of the Lisbon First Presbyterian Church held its annual "dessert meeting" Tuesday night at the church, with Mrs. John Rodu, president of the association, welcoming the 60 members and guests present, who included the June graduates of the high school.

Mrs. Rodu also presided for the brief business meeting.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Williams, fellowship chairman, using "Woman, the Teacher" as her topic, conducted the fellowship of the "least coin" and introduced new member.

"Toward Wholeness" was the devotional theme for the summer medical offering to be used for research and to help provide $100,000 in medical scholarships.

"The Madrigal Singers," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Pike, presented "favorite melodies." They were introduced by Mrs. Donald Lewis, program chairman, who is also a member of the group.

Mrs. William Pannier, soloist, sang, "Bird Song" and "Two Little Stairs," accompanied by Mrs. Pike.

Two vocal solos, "How Do I Love Thee?" and "Till There Was You," were presented by Mrs. Lewis, accompanied by Miss Eilene Grim.

The next meeting of the Women's Association's five circles will be held the afternoon and evening of Sept. 28.

Gilmore Gets Maloney Post In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH — William J. Gilmore, detective superintendent, Wednesday was appointed assistant superintendent in charge of the uniformed division of police, a post held by Lawrence J. Maloney before his dismissal.

In the series of police shifts in the upper echelons as an aftermath of the dismissal of Maloney, the city administration also announced:

Lieut. and acting Inspector John P. Kelly promoted to full inspector to replace Inspector James Rimmel, who retired yesterday.

Inspector Paul A. Duffy, who had been serving as Maloney's replacement since Dec. 19, restored as inspector.

Status Of Women Subject Of 3 Washington Meetings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The status of women has been the topic of discussion at three major meetings in Washington this week.

Some 5,000 women from 22 countries are in on the act.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, press secretary to the First Lady, calls it "a status explosion." After a slow start, she says "our country is making room for mom."

"All it really takes to find a superior woman is a superior man and his confidence."

Some of the top men in government, called on to make speeches at this week's conventions of the National and International Federations of Business and Professional Women and the conference of 44 state governors' commissions on the status of women, are getting a bit self-conscious.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said he's thinking of speaking on the topic: "Dinasaurs, Dodo Birds, Whoopin Cranes and Males."

The men were in the minority Wednesday night at a State Department dinner for some 400 deleates to the status of women conference and presidential talent scout Johnson W. Macy Jr. said it was "so glorious I hope we can perpetuate it."

Chest X-Ray Reports Given; Smoking Survey Tabulated

LISBON — A total of 1,374 persons had chest X-rays taken recently in East Liverpool by the mobile unit of the Columbiana County Public Health League.

Of that number, 17 have been recalled for further study and four are suspected as having tuberculosis, health officials said. There were 36 cardio vascular disease cases and nine emphysema cases.

However, 96 per cent of the cases were read as satisfactory, Lillian R. Schroeder, executive director, said.

A total of 782 were X-rayed at Wellsville July 22-23, but there is no breakdown available as yet, Miss Schroeder said.

The executive director said there will be two chest X-ray programs in the county next month — one at East Palestine Aug. 13-14 and the other at Salem Aug. 25-27.

Fall chest X-ray programs include one at the Columbiana Street Fair Sept. 10-11 and one in Lisbon Oct. 28-29.

While the chest X-ray unit was in East Liverpool, each of the persons going through was asked this question: "Have you stopped smoking since the surgeon - general's report of January 1964?"

The question was asked of 1,342 — 773 females and 569 males. Of the females, 488, or 63 per cent, said they never smoked; 225 males, or 40 per cent, said they never smoked.

Of the 285 female smokers, only 4 per cent stopped smoking as a result of the surgeon-general's report. For the men, the figure was 6 per cent.

However, 20 per cent of the women and 10 per cent of the men said they had cut down their smoking.

Varied Program Held By Frankfort Grange

The program included: Song, "Coming Through The Rye;" meditation, "The Outdoor Man;" reading, Bertha McMillan; recreation, flash card game; weather lore, Edith Herstine.

It was announced that the grange will submit entries in the art, color photography and other contests.

The report for the two - year period was completed and forwarded to state grange headquarters for judging.

Grange members were urged to attend a picnic which the County Youth group will sponsor Aug. 11 at Brady's Run Park.

Irondale Choir Holds Lake Swimming Party

Sixteen attended a swimming party held Tuesday by the Junior Choir of the Irondale Methodist Church at Lake Marwin. They were accompanied by the Rev. James Hobson, Miss Edna Coil, Mrs. Jane Toslon, Mrs. Ruth Perkins and Mrs. Jean Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Nicholson and Rachel McLain have returned from a trip to Geneva-On-The-Lake and Niagara Falls.

Ruling Handed Down In Hancock Slaying

A jury, impaneled Wednesday night by John D. Herron of New Cumberland, Hancock County coroner, has ruled that Warren Wylie, 51, of Weirton was shot and killed by Gertrude Huggins, 48, also of Weirton, early last Saturday.

The inquest was held last night at Herron's office. The ruling reads that Wylie met his death at approximately 3:30 a. m. on July 24 at 141 Kusic St., Weirton, by means of a bullet wound in the left side of his chest, fired from a .38-caliber rifle held by Gertrude Huggins.

The woman has been taken into custody and charged with the slaying by Weirton detectives.

Extradition To Be Sought Of Fugitive

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cuyahoga County Prosecutor John T. Corrigan says he will start extradition proceedings today to bring back from New Orleans Eugene H. Woods, fugitive Cleveland nursing home operator for more than a year.

FBI agents, acting on a tip, arrested the 42-year-old Woods Wednesday on a fugitive warrant. Agents said he had grown a mustache as an apparent disguise and was using the name of Eugene Frederick.

They said Woods had been operating two restaurants in the New Orleans area for the past nine months with the help of Angela Mahl. She is a 31-year-old nurse who aided Woods in his nursing home operations in Ohio.

"We always lived in fear that we'd be found out. But oh, yes, we were happy."

Woods is under indictment in Cleveland for larceny by trick by operating a nursing home. He is accused of misusing the $15,000 life savings of a World War I veteran.

At his hearing Wednesday before a U.S. commissioner in New Orleans, Woods said he did not want a lawyer until he was returned to Ohio.

10 Escape Serious Injury At Speedway

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Part of a wooden grandstand collapsed at the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway in nearby Clinton Wednesday night, dropping some spectators about 15 feet to the ground.

Ten persons were injured but only Kenneth Kusich, 9, of Avella in Washington County was hospitalized. He suffered lacerations of the left hand and contusions of the head. The others were treated and released.

Man, 63, Bound Over In Contributing Case

NEW CUMBERLAND—Floyd Jones, 63, of New Cumberland was bound to the next term of the Hancock County Grand Jury on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors at a hearing Wednesday before Squire John D. Herron.

Jones was arrested Tuesday by Police Chief William Webster for allegedly molesting two girls, 8 and 10. His bond was set at $2,500 and he was committed to the county jail in default of payment.

Auto Mishap Fatal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Robert Lee Wheeler, 32, of Columbus was killed Wednesday night when his car swerved and smashed into a utility pole.

Extradition To Be Sought Of Fugitive

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cuyahoga County Prosecutor John T. Corrigan says he will start extradition proceedings today to bring back from New Orleans Eugene H. Woods, fugitive Cleveland nursing home operator for more than a year.

FBI agents, acting on a tip, arrested the 42-year-old Woods Wednesday on a fugitive warrant. Agents said he had grown a mustache as an apparent disguise and was using the name of Eugene Frederick.

They said Woods had been operating two restaurants in the New Orleans area for the past nine months with the help of Angela Mahl. She is a 31-year-old nurse who aided Woods in his nursing home operations in Ohio.

"We always lived in fear that we'd be found out. But oh, yes, we were happy."

Woods is under indictment in Cleveland for larceny by trick by operating a nursing home. He is accused of misusing the $15,000 life savings of a World War I veteran.

At his hearing Wednesday before a U.S. commissioner in New Orleans, Woods said he did not want a lawyer until he was returned to Ohio.

10 Escape Serious Injury At Speedway

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Part of a wooden grandstand collapsed at the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway in nearby Clinton Wednesday night, dropping some spectators about 15 feet to the ground.

Ten persons were injured but only Kenneth Kusich, 9, of Avella in Washington County was hospitalized. He suffered lacerations of the left hand and contusions of the head. The others were treated and released.

Man, 63, Bound Over In Contributing Case

NEW CUMBERLAND—Floyd Jones, 63, of New Cumberland was bound to the next term of the Hancock County Grand Jury on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors at a hearing Wednesday before Squire John D. Herron.

Jones was arrested Tuesday by Police Chief William Webster for allegedly molesting two girls, 8 and 10. His bond was set at $2,500 and he was committed to the county jail in default of payment.

Auto Mishap Fatal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Robert Lee Wheeler, 32, of Columbus was killed Wednesday night when his car swerved and smashed into a utility pole.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

LISTEN, FOLKS: There are so many different ways to buy meat that I couldn't begin to shake a stick at one-tenth of 'em!

But, let me tell you something I have learned about round and cube steak; 'specially when yon see a sale and want to stock your freezer. Did you know that you could pick out a round steak from the counter (ring that little bell in some stores), and have the butcher T-E-N-D-E-R-I-Z-E it for you FREE? He will!

This means that he will run it through a gadget with tiny claws, such as our meat pounders. I always have mine run through twice as this makes it twice as tender, and far more edible.

WHEN YOU get home, cut that big steak into serving portions, then put each portion in one of those new plastic sandwich bags. They don't cost very much; but if you feel you can't afford them, just take your scissors and cut up plastic cleaning bags and wrap away.

I always put tenderizer on the top of the meat, THEN wrap and freeze it.

Let me tell you why:

I feel that since your meat is not frozen, the tenderizer works while it is freezing, and when you remove it from the freezer, it works again while it thaws.

I'm positive of this, as I have tested it for over a year now.

ANOTHER THING, did you know that you could use tenderizer not only on steaks, but also on chicken, lamb and liver? Yes, you can. So, long may tenderizer wave!

After you put your meats into these little plastic gags, you can take your fist and hit the wrapped piece of meat, and it will shape to the plastic package beautifully.

By placing these individual portions in separate wrappings, they are easily separated and thaw quickly. (Ever need something to prepare in a hurry? Specially when that extra guest arrives?) These store beautifully in an ice tray if you don't have a deep freezer.

PS: I NEVER buy "seasoned" tenderizer. Why pay for all those condiments, such as salt, etc., when I can buy a whole box of salt for a little more than a dime? Also, the seasoned tenderizer sometimes changes the taste of the meat.

Many people write that they don't like tenderizers, as they say it affects the taste of meat, and they can tell instantly that tenderizer has been used. Surely these people are using seasoned types. Look on the jar, and buy one that says "Unseasoned." It's written in small letters — not in CAPITALS.

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I'm 72 years young, and I am known as the "lady with the blooming antenna," by the boys who carry my groceries for me.

We can always spot my car in any parking lot by the flowers on the antenna.

I change the flowers each month to the "flower of the month."

PHYLLIS CONROY.

DEAR HELOISE: Just another helpful hint for busy canning days:

When you need to cook a syrup or brine to put over fruits or vegetables which you pack in jars, boil the mixture in a large coffee pot.

When pouring, there is no stream on your hands and you can fill a jar without using a funnel.

MRS. A.F.

DEAR HELOISE: Girls' nylon tights or leotards can be restored (hide fuzz balls), by taking the tights and sewing a seam as close to the old seam as possible on the right side. Stretch the material as you sew, using a medium stitch. I do all the seams this way.

Turn them wrong side out, and they will look like new again.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Something has been bothering me and I don't know who to talk to. My husband suggested I write to you so here I am.

The family next door has seven children. The mother is relaxed, organized and she seems to have time and energy to spare. We have four children. I'm always behind in my ironing and housework and I haven't had time to serve on a committee since my last child was born three years ago.

The problem I need help with is this: The children next door wear the hand-me-downs of their older brothers and sisters and there is never any trouble over it.

Yesterday the 8 - year - old neighbor boy said to me, "Look at my jacket. It was Timmy's." The jacket was quite shabby but it was obvious that the youngster was proud to wear it.

My 9-year-old refuses to wear anything that belonged to his older brother. Last winter he said no to a coat that was almost new. I'm mystified by the difference in our children. Please explain.—T.M.

Dear T.M.: The condition of the clothing is no factor. It's the way children feel about one another that makes the difference.

It's normal for brothers and sisters to be competitive. Show me a family where no rivalry exists and I will show you a collection of vegetables.

Naked hostility, however, is something else. When brothers and sisters actively hate each other it means the parents have not given each of them, equally, the feeling they're loved and wanted.

Haunted By Past

Dear Ann: My husband and I were engaged for 20 months because we decided to have all our furniture paid for before we married.

Glen (not his real name) said the frustration of not being man and wife (physically) was making him a nervous wreck. He became more and more insistent and I'm ashamed to say I gave in to him three months before we were married.

We get along just fine now and everything is lovely, except for one thing. When we are out with friends Glen always turns the subject to premarital sex. He says a virgin bride is a thing of the past and nobody waits any more.

Whenever he makes these remarks I feel like dropping through the floor. I've tried to tell him that such talk makes it plain that I was not a virgin when we were married. Glen says I'm too sensitive. What do you say?—SORRY NOW.

Dear Now: I say Glen should keep his big trap shut. Nothing is more despicable than a man who "tells" on his wife and Glen is doing just that whether he realizes it or not.

I hope you single girls are listening. This is a classic example of a man who wears down a woman's resistance then clobbers her later because she gave in.

Thanks Truck Driver

Dear Ann: Last week when I was hurrying to meet my husband I became confused as I neared a bridge and didn't know which way to turn.

Motorists behind me began to honk their horns and passing motorists shouted ugly words at me. I knew I was holding up traffic but I was so nervous I didn't know what to do.

Just as I was about to break down and bawl a truck driver pulled up alongside me and said, "Where are you trying to go, lady? Maybe I can help." I told him and he said, "Follow me."

Well, Ann, that man just about saved my life. He gave me exactly the kind of help I needed and I always will be grateful to him. So, ladies, if you ever run into trouble while driving, remember the truck driver is your best friend. — RED WAGON.

Dear Red: Thanks for telling the world, Lady. I'm not going to print the name of your city or state because I'll bet dozens of truck drivers have helped confused ladies all over the country this week. Let's let each truck driver ask himself, "Am I the one?"

-:-

No Substitute For Money? 2 Casinos To Give It A Try

RENO, NEV. (AP) — As Harold Smith Jr. says, "there's no substitute for money." But two of Nevada's biggest gambling casinos are ready to give it a whirl anyway.

Harolds Club will begin using chrome-plated tokens in silver dollar slot machines, probably next week, Smith, son of the club's founder, says.

Neighboring Harrah's Club has its own gold-colored tokens ready to go, even though it still has a few silver dolars left.

Meanwhile, Edward A. Olsen, chairman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board, was conferring with U.S. treasury officials in Washington to make sure use of the tokens would not violate federal law.

Nevada casinos have used plastic or composition chips on blackjack and crap tables for years. The chips are as good as money almost any place in town. One club's chips normally can be exchanged for money at another casino.

But the law says metal tokens cannot be used as legal tender, Olsen noted following a conference with club owners this week, and must be circulated only within the casino which issued them.

Silver dollars have virtually disappeared from Nevada casinos since the great run on cartwheels in the spring of 1964 by collectors and speculators.

Man, 29, Convicted In Drag-Racing Death

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A Stark County Common Pleas Court jury has convicted Jerry Anderson, 29, of Hartville of second-degree murder in the drag - racing death of Philip Romano, 59, of Malvern.

The jury returned the verdict Wednesday night. Anderson was charged with driving the car that rammed Romano's auto headon on Ohio 44 near the Stark-Portage County line in May, 1964.

Harold G. Butler, 23, also of Hartville, was sentenced to life imprisonment earlier this month on second - degree murder charges in the same case.

Orthodox Group Forms Scout Unit

STEUBENVILLE — An Eastern Orthodox Catholic Committee on Boy Scouting has been formed for the Fort Steuben Area Council.

The chairman is the Rev. Fr. Stephen Natsis of All Saints Greek Orthodox Church of Weirton. Atty. Michael Blischak of Toronto is secretary.

The Eastern Orthodox Catholic Clergy Association of the Ohio Valley, sponsor of the committee, said the organization's purposes are:

To encourage Scouts to become candidates for the Alpha Omega Church Award.

To develop programs for Scouts such as corporate communions, days of recollection, retreats and pilgrimages to sacred icons.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Something has been bothering me and I don't know who to talk to. My husband suggested I write to you so here I am.

The family next door has seven children. The mother is relaxed, organized and she seems to have time and energy to spare. We have four children. I'm always behind in my ironing and housework and I haven't had time to serve on a committee since my last child was born three years ago.

The problem I need help with is this: The children next door wear the hand-me-downs of their older brothers and sisters and there is never any trouble over it.

Yesterday the 8 - year - old neighbor boy said to me, "Look at my jacket. It was Timmy's." The jacket was quite shabby but it was obvious that the youngster was proud to wear it.

My 9-year-old refuses to wear anything that belonged to his older brother. Last winter he said no to a coat that was almost new. I'm mystified by the difference in our children. Please explain.—T.M.

Dear T.M.: The condition of the clothing is no factor. It's the way children feel about one another that makes the difference.

It's normal for brothers and sisters to be competitive. Show me a family where no rivalry exists and I will show you a collection of vegetables.

Naked hostility, however, is something else. When brothers and sisters actively hate each other it means the parents have not given each of them, equally, the feeling they're loved and wanted.

Haunted By Past

Dear Ann: My husband and I were engaged for 20 months because we decided to have all our furniture paid for before we married.

Glen (not his real name) said the frustration of not being man and wife (physically) was making him a nervous wreck. He became more and more insistent and I'm ashamed to say I gave in to him three months before we were married.

We get along just fine now and everything is lovely, except for one thing. When we are out with friends Glen always turns the subject to premarital sex. He says a virgin bride is a thing of the past and nobody waits any more.

Whenever he makes these remarks I feel like dropping through the floor. I've tried to tell him that such talk makes it plain that I was not a virgin when we were married. Glen says I'm too sensitive. What do you say?—SORRY NOW.

Dear Now: I say Glen should keep his big trap shut. Nothing is more despicable than a man who "tells" on his wife and Glen is doing just that whether he realizes it or not.

I hope you single girls are listening. This is a classic example of a man who wears down a woman's resistance then clobbers her later because she gave in.

Thanks Truck Driver

Dear Ann: Last week when I was hurrying to meet my husband I became confused as I neared a bridge and didn't know which way to turn.

Motorists behind me began to honk their horns and passing motorists shouted ugly words at me. I knew I was holding up traffic but I was so nervous I didn't know what to do.

Just as I was about to break down and bawl a truck driver pulled up alongside me and said, "Where are you trying to go, lady? Maybe I can help." I told him and he said, "Follow me."

Well, Ann, that man just about saved my life. He gave me exactly the kind of help I needed and I always will be grateful to him. So, ladies, if you ever run into trouble while driving, remember the truck driver is your best friend. — RED WAGON.

Dear Red: Thanks for telling the world, Lady. I'm not going to print the name of your city or state because I'll bet dozens of truck drivers have helped confused ladies all over the country this week. Let's let each truck driver ask himself, "Am I the one?"

-:-

No Substitute For Money? 2 Casinos To Give It A Try

EL Americans Win District Little League Title, 11-8

Mingo Junction Next Foe Friday

East Liverpool's American League All-Stars proudly wore the District 4 crown today after defeating the Massillon Americans, 11-8, in the championship battle Wednesday at Thompson Park.

The victory puts East Liverpool into Regional play and the E. L. Americans will face Mingo Junction Friday at 6 p. m. at Thompson Park.

The locals took an early 1-0 lead over Massillon but a home run by Rick Porter pulled the visitors in front. East Liverpool jumped back into the running when left fielder Rick Watson blasted a home run over the centerfield fence in the third inning.

John Cunningham hurled five innings for East Liverpool before southpaw Jim Lynch relieved in the sixth frame to put down a Massillon threat as the contest ended with two runners on base.

Watson carried the heavy bat for East Liverpool by collecting a home run, double and single. Cunningham helped his own cause with a two base wallop and a single while John Lockhart doubled and singled.

Paul Kolosky was the losing hurler as his teammates collected nine hits off East Liverpool pitching. Porter's home run, double and single paced the Massillon nine at the plate.

Hoyt Could Remain Reds' Announcer

CINCINNATI (AP) — William O. DeWitt, president of the Cincinnati Reds, said today Waite Hoyt will continue to broadcast all Reds baseball games next year "providing he is available and providing he desires to continue."

There were indications Hoyt, who has broadcast Cincinnati games since 1941, would be replaced after disclosure the broadcasts next year will be sponsored by Wiedemann Brewing Co.

Hoyt long has broadcast under the sponsorship of Burger Brewing Co.

DeWitt said that when Wiedemann submitted its bid for the contract "it was stated that Waite Hoyt would be a part of the broadcast team if he was available."

There were reports Tuesday that Hoyt would be succeeded by Paul Sommerkamp, a Cincinnati advertising man who has been Crosley Field public address announcer for 14 years.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING — Sammy Ellis, Cincinnati, pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 as the Reds snapped Sandy Koufax' 11-game winning streak and trimmed the National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1.

BATTING — Tony Oliva, Minnesota, rapped five singles, scored three runs, drove in two and stole two bases, sparking the American League-leading Twins to an 8-1 triumph over Washington.

Fight Results

SAN FRANCISCO — Denny Moyer, 158, Portland, Ore., outpointed Jimmy Lester, 155½, San Francisco, 10.

Ferro, Esquire, World Book Win Slow Pitch Tilts

Ferro-Louthans, Esquire Barbers and World Book captured victories in the Slow Pitch League Wednesday.

Louthans nipped Osborn's Barbers, 9-8 in eight innings with Jack Canton the winning pitcher. Ernie Joy, Shorty Simms and Fritz Evans had three hits each for the winners. Canton drove in the winning run in the eighth inning.

Duck Rogers and Joe Chontos had three hits apiece for Osborn's.

Esquire defeated Hookstown, 10-3 as Corky Mays and Lorin Howard homered for the winners. Rich Manning was the winning pitcher.

Bianchi Signs Pact With 76ers Of NBA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Al Bianchi, veteran backcourt man signed a contract for the 1965-66 season Wednesday with the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association.

Bianchi, 33, scored 404 points in 60 games last season. He will be starting his 10th season in the NBA.

Pirates Lose 1-0 To Phils In 14th

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati right-hander took another step away from carrying a two dollar pail, out-pitching Sandy Koufax in the Red's 4-1 triumph over Los Angeles Wednesday night.

Ellis stymied the National League leaders on four hits while the second-place Reds snapped Koufax' winning streak at 11 and moved to within two games of the Dodgers.

The victory put Ellis in a class with Koufax, Don Drysdale and Juan Marichal, the four being the only pitchers in the majors to have at least 14 victories this season. Ellis now is 14-6 while Koufax is 17-4.

And the showing the 24-year-old fireballer has made is pretty good for a guy who didn't know before the season started whether he would be a reliever or a starter. He did know one thing, though. He didn't want to relieve.

In other National League games Wednesday, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh 1-0 in 14 innings, Milwaukee outlasted Houston 6-4, San Francisco defeated St. Louis 8-5 and Chicago swept New York 7-2 and 9-0.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh battled through 13 scoreless innings before Don Schwall walked three Phillies in the 14th and Alex Johnson beat out a two-out infield single, driving in Cookie Rojas. The Pirates managed only five hits off Jim Bunning and Jack Badschun.

The Braves boosted their All-Star break to 13-4 as Denis Menke drove in two runs with a homer and a single and Ty Cline rapped three hits. Billy O'Dell saved Ken Johnson's 11th victory against five defeats by pitching out of a bases-loaded jam in the seventh.

Dick Schofield and Jim Davenport each batted across two runs in a five-run second inning that carried the Giants past St. Louis. Singles by Lou Brock, Ken Boyer and Phil Gagliano plus Ron Herbel's error helped St. Louis to three runs in the sixth.

Dick Ellsworth 12-6 stopped New York on seven hits in the first game and received support from two-run homers by Ernie Banks and Ron Santo. Banks, whose homer was his 17th, singled before Santo connected for his 21st.

Larry Jackson, 9-13, posted his 12th career victory over the Mets with a five-hitter in the nightcap. Billy Williams backed him with three hits, including a homer, and three runs batted in.

Franklin Nine Wins Crown In United League

SUMMITVILLE — Franklin Township's Little League team won the United League championship Wednesday night with a 2-1 win over East Rochester at the Millport field.

Franklin scored both runs in the 5th inning after Bob Diehl trippled and Jack Thompson singled. Thompson scored on two errors. George Thompson was the winning pitcher.

Robert Carter is manager of the team which will receive its award at the All-Star game Friday night at Winona. Franklin won ten and lost two games in the league which includes Winona, New Garden and Hanoverton.

Twins Whip Senators But Pascual Will Be Lost For Several Weeks

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the Minnesota Twins maintain their current pace, the American League pennant may wind up flying from the roof of the Mayo Clinic.

Camilo Pascual, Minnesota's top pitcher, became a prospective hospital resident Wednesday night but the league-leading Twins kept rolling — thanks to a player on the way to the operating table and one who's been there.

Tony Oliva, who plans to have the painful bone chip in a finger removed after the season, rapped five hits and Gary Roggenburk, sidelined all of last year after an arm operation, pitched 5 1-3 strong innings in relief of Pascual as the Twins walloped Washington 8-1.

Pascual, 8-3 this season and twice a 20-game winner, started against the Senators after learning he must undergo surgery for removal of a newly-discovered tumor on the back of his pitching arm. He took a 3-0 lead into the fourth inning but was unable to continue.

Oliva, whose batting average has soared from .268 to .308 since July 1, and the 6-foot-6 Roggenburk provide the necessary first aid against Washington, enabling the Twins to retain a four-game bulge in the standings.

Dick Brown's two-run double in the seventh inning paced second-place Baltimore to a 5-1 victory over Los Angeles and a third-place Cleveland remained 4½ games out by topping Chicago 4-2 on Fred Whitfield's two-run homer in the eighth.

Detroit edged New York 4-3 on Norm Cash's three-run homer in the eighth and Boston blanked Kansas City 6-0 behind right-hander Bill Monbouquette in other American League games.

Baltimore, held to two hits by Fred Newman for six innings, struck for three runs in the seventh, enabling Steve Barber to win his ninth game. Newman, who homered for the Angels' run, took his eight loss.

Whitfield's 14th homer, after a walk to Leon Wagner in the eighth, snapped a 2-2 tie at Cleveland and sent the White Sox down to the ninth defeat in the last 10 games. The Indians had tied it in the seventh on Pedro Gonzalez' single, two infield outs and a bunt single by Larry Brown.

The Tigers scored all their runs in the eighth after rookie Jack Cullen had checked them on five hits in his first major league start. Cash's homer was the first this year off Yankee reliever Steve Hamilton, who made his 31st appearance in relief of Cullen.

Monbouquette survived leadoff hits in six innings while picking up his first victory since July 4 while Carl Yastrzemski and Lee Thomas homered for the Red Sox. Boston, however, lost Tony Conigliaro when he was hit by a pitch and suffered a hair-line fracture of his right wrist.

Dentists Miss Playoff Spot In 5-2 Loss

Riverview Florists knocked the Dentists out of a playoff spot in the Colt League by taking a 5-2 decision in the final regularly scheduled game Wednesday.

Riverview scored all of its runs in the first three innings as Mike Caruso, the winning hurler, limited the Dentists to single runs in the second and fourth frames and gave up two hits. Earl Diddle, the losing pitcher, allowed three hits. Both teams committed four errors.

East Nips Dixonville In Playground Battle

East nipped Dixonville, 5-4, in an Eastern Division game of the Playground League Wednesday.

Rick Adkins pitched and batted East to victory by collecting three hits in four trips. Chuck Harris and Mike Vernaccini had three hits each for Dixonville.

Banks 'Feels Good,' Having Fine Season

CHICAGO (AP) — "Last year in July and August I was struggling, but I feel real good this year."

That is soft-spoken Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs talking. And his baseball accomplishments so far in the 1965 season certainly bear out the fact that Mr. Cub himself feels "real good."

Banks' four runs scored in Wednesday's 7-2 and 9-0 triumphs over the New York Mets gave him a career total of 1,001 and his three runs batted in boost his season total to 79.

Walter Hagen 'Doing Well' After Surgery

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Hagen, who reigned as the king of professional golf before the present day leaders such as Jack Nicklau, Arnold Palmer, Tony Lema and Gary Player were born, is winning the greatest match of his life.

The 72-year-old fabulous Haig, as he was known in the 1920s when he was a contemporary of Babe Ruth, Bill Tilden, Red Grange, Jack Dempsey, Bobby Jones and Earl Sande, underwent a throat operation for cancer Tuesday.

"He's doing very, very well," his son, Walter Hagen, Jr. said today.

"Let's face it, I was worried before the operation. But when I visited him at the hospital Wednesday night he was sitting in a chair and watching the Detroit-Yankee baseball game on television."

Boston's Conigliaro Suffers Broken Wrist

BOSTON (AP) — Boston's brittle outfielder, Tony Conigliaro, will miss another week of action because of his fourth bone break in three years.

The 20-year-old slugger suffered a broken wrist Wednesday night when he was struck by a Wes Stock pitch in the fifth inning of Boston's 6-0 victory over Kansas City.

EL Americans Win District Little League Title, 11-8

Mingo Junction Next Foe Friday

East Liverpool's American League All-Stars proudly wore the District 4 crown today after defeating the Massillon Americans, 11-8, in the championship battle Wednesday at Thompson Park.

The victory puts East Liverpool into Regional play and the E. L. Americans will face Mingo Junction Friday at 6 p. m. at Thompson Park.

The locals took an early 1-0 lead over Massillon but a home run by Rick Porter pulled the visitors in front. East Liverpool jumped back into the running when left fielder Rick Watson blasted a home run over the centerfield fence in the third inning.

John Cunningham hurled five innings for East Liverpool before southpaw Jim Lynch relieved in the sixth frame to put down a Massillon threat as the contest ended with two runners on base.

Watson carried the heavy bat for East Liverpool by collecting a home run, double and single. Cunningham helped his own cause with a two base wallop and a single while John Lockhart doubled and singled.

Hoyt Could Remain Reds' Announcer

CINCINNATI (AP) — William O. DeWitt, president of the Cincinnati Reds, said today Waite Hoyt will continue to broadcast all Reds baseball games next year "providing he is available and providing he desires to continue."

There were indications Hoyt, who has broadcast Cincinnati games since 1941, would be replaced after disclosure the broadcasts next year will be sponsored by Wiedemann Brewing Co.

Hoyt long has broadcast under the sponsorship of Burger Brewing Co.

DeWitt said that when Wiedemann submitted its bid for the contract "it was stated that Waite Hoyt would be a part of the broadcast team if he was available."

There were reports Tuesday that Hoyt would be succeeded by Paul Sommerkamp, a Cincinnati advertising man who has been Crosley Field public address announcer for 14 years.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING — Sammy Ellis, Cincinnati, pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 as the Reds snapped Sandy Koufax' 11-game winning streak and trimmed the National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1.

BATTING — Tony Oliva, Minnesota, rapped five singles, scored three runs, drove in two and stole two bases, sparking the American League-leading Twins to an 8-1 triumph over Washington.

Pirates Lose 1-0 To Phils In 14th

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati right-hander took another step away from carrying a two dollar pail, out-pitching Sandy Koufax in the Red's 4-1 triumph over Los Angeles Wednesday night.

Ellis stymied the National League leaders on four hits while the second-place Reds snapped Koufax' winning streak at 11 and moved to within two games of the Dodgers.

The victory put Ellis in a class with Koufax, Don Drysdale and Juan Marichal, the four being the only pitchers in the majors to have at least 14 victories this season. Ellis now is 14-6 while Koufax is 17-4.

And the showing the 24-year-old fireballer has made is pretty good for a guy who didn't know before the season started whether he would be a reliever or a starter. He did know one thing, though. He didn't want to relieve.

In other National League games Wednesday, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh 1-0 in 14 innings, Milwaukee outlasted Houston 6-4, San Francisco defeated St. Louis 8-5 and Chicago swept New York 7-2 and 9-0.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh battled through 13 scoreless innings before Don Schwall walked three Phillies in the 14th and Alex Johnson beat out a two-out infield single, driving in Cookie Rojas. The Pirates managed only five hits off Jim Bunning and Jack Badschun.

Larry Jackson, 9-13, posted his 12th career victory over the Mets with a five-hitter in the nightcap. Billy Williams backed him with three hits, including a homer, and three runs batted in.

Race Chairman Voted Down By Senate Members

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate has rejected reappointment of the chairman and one member of the State Racing Commission in a reported feud over photographing of night harness races.

Voted down Wednesday night were the appointment to new terms of Chairman Lawrence Ramey, Columbus, and Russell H. Wetzel, Hamilton. Ramey was turned down by a 3-24 vote and Wetzel 5-23.

Senators were quoted as saying beforehand they disliked failure of the commission to act at a meeting Wednesday on a proposal to eliminate the photographing requirement under certain conditions.

A bill intended to do the same thing was revived Wednesday night by the Rules Committee and placed on the upper chamber's floor calendar for action today.

Burns Prove Fatal

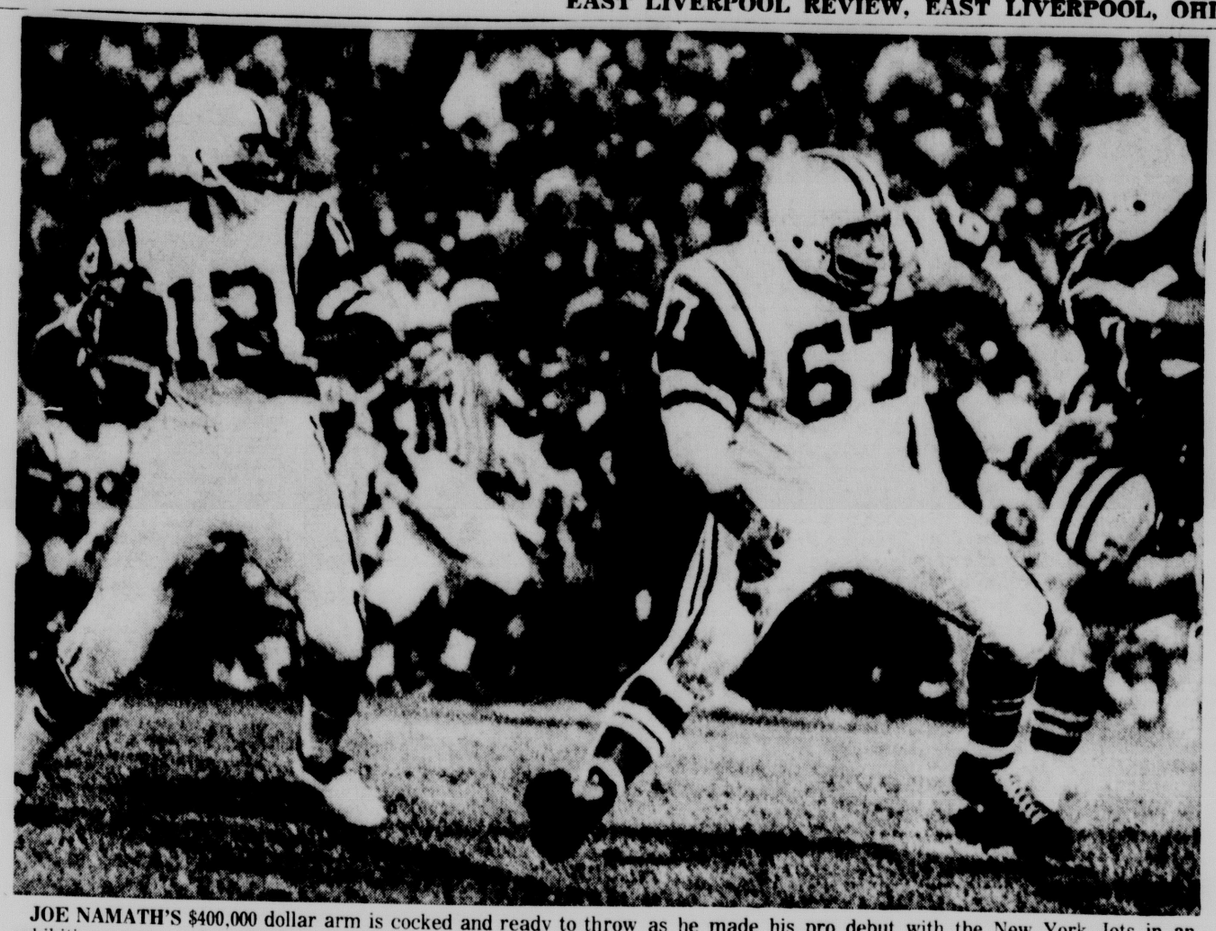
CLEVELAND (AP)— Warren Reid, 29, burned over more than half of his body in a gasoline explosion, died Wednesday. Police said he was cleaning automobile parts with gasoline at a service station July 2 when the blast occurred.



JOE NAMATH'S $400,000 dollar arm is cocked and ready to throw as he made his pro debut with the New York Jets in an exhibition game against the Boston Patriots Wednesday night in Lowell, Mass. Namath paced his team to a 23-6 win by throwing two touchdown passes and making two interceptions. Namath is No. 12 and is shown ready to pass as teammate Dave Herman (67) blocks. (UPI Telephoto)

Rains Force Golf Delay In Scotland

DALMAHOY, Scotland (AP) — The first round of the $28,000 Dalmahoy Golf Tournament was postponed before it got started today because parts of the course were flooded.

Floyd, from St. Andrews, Ill., defeated Eric Brown — the Scot with the 100 per cent match play record against the Americans in Ryder Cup competition — by four holes in Wednesday's Little Ryder Cup match by firing a brilliant seven-under-par 34-31—65 in the rain.

The British Isles team won by 27 holes to 12 after torrential rain had cut late 18-hole singles matches to as little as 11 holes.

Brown's victims in the Ryder Cup have been Lloyd Mangrum, Tommy Bolt, Jerry Barber and Cary Middlecoff.

But as the Scot walked smiling through the rain from Dalmahoy's 18th green after taking a merciless beating from Floyd, he said: "To lose by four holes after going around in 70 seems incredible. But this boy is going to be one of the world's greats, and if I had to lose to a Yank I am glad it was to him."

An hour after Brown and Floyd had paddled in from the waterlogged battlefront, the tournament was abandoned with the score counting as the matches stood.

$400,000 Passer Shines In Debut

LOWELL, Mass. (AP) — The wraps are off Joe Namath and the $400,000 quarterback is airborne in his bid to win a starting job with New York's American Football League Jets.

The 22-year-old former Alabama standout, the highest-priced rookie in pro sports history, made his long awaited debut and turned in a creditable performance in leading the Jets to a 23-6 victory over the Boston Patriots Wednesday night in a rookie squad exhibition.

Namath completed his first pass as a pro, a 16-yard shot to Jim Evans, setting up a six-yard touchdown run by Bob Schweickert of Virginia Tech in the first period.

Then the 6-foot-2 aerial artist triggered a 12-yard scoring pass to Evans in the second period and a five-yard clothesline toss to Tom Krzemienski of Michigan State in the third quarter before retiring for the evening.

Although a few of his passes were off intended receiver's fingers, Namath finished with nine completions in 19 attempts for 106 yards. He had two passes intercepted and took the blame for one claiming he didn't set himself well enough to throw.

Golf's Top Stars Tee Up In Thunderbird Tourney

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

And defending champion Tony Lema, vintage stars Gene Sarazen and Sam Snead, and Billy Casper and Bruce Crampton, three-time winners on the PGA circuit this year.

There is little doubt Palmer is the fans' favorite for the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic which opened today over Westchester Country Club's 6,573-yard course. The slumping slugger's progress in Wednesday's program competition was closely watched, and there was a sizable and enthusiastic crowd surrounding the green when he holed out on the 18th hole.

If Palmer is the popular favorite, Player must rate as the realistic choice to take the top prize of $20,000. The compactly built South African who won by 11 strokes in a special challenge tourney against Palmer and Nicklaus last week, has been shooting well all year, and is satisfied with his current form.

He and Lema carded 70s in the pro-am, topped by George Knudson and Miller Barber with 65s. Australia's Ken Nagle, loser in the U.S. Open playoff to Player, tied at 66 with Tommy Aaron and Gardner Dickinson, while Casper fired a 69 and Nicklaus a par 72.

There is a field of 149, which will be cut to the low 70 and ties for the last two 18-hole rounds Saturday and Sunday.

Scafide's Wins, Sets Stage For Friday's Showdown Tilt

Scafide's Carry - Out set the stage for a showdown battle with the Chester Merchants by posting an 8-6 victory over Gallagher's Market Wednesday in the Chester Softball League.

The victory leaves Scafide's and the Chester Merchants tied for first place and the two teams meet Friday at 6:45.

Globe Brick will meet Hancock Savings and Loan tonight at 6:45.

In an exhibition game Wednesday, Scafide's defeated a team leading the Minerva Softball League, 3-2. Dawson and Thayer homered for the winners and Jim Tice was the winning pitcher.

Collegians Lead Qualifying Play In Western Event

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A pair of collegians heads a field of 180 players into today's second qualifying round of the 63rd Western Amateur Golf Tournament, which has turned into a classic struggle against par.

Only 21-year-old Bill Newton, senior pre-med student at Michian, broke par over the giant 7,000-yard Point o' Woods course Wednesday. The Big Ten Champion drilled through a brisk wind for a 70, one stroke off the standard.

At 71 was NCAA titlist Marty Fleckman of Houston. One stroke behind was Bob Smith of Sacramento, Calif., who won the 1962 Holland and Austrian amateur titles while serving in the U.S. Army.

After today's round, the field will be chopped to the 50 low scorers and ties for the 36-hole qualifying windup Friday. The 16 low scorers then enter two days of match play for the championship in what could be regarded as the major endurance contest in major golf.

Boy Killed By Car

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Mahoning County's 1965 traffic toll stood today at 45. The latest victim, 23-month-old Andrew R. Dillon, was killed Wednesday night when he ran into the path of a car in front of his home in Austintown.

271 Entered At Canton In Public Links

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Some of Ohio's best greens fee players tackle the Tam-O-Shanter course here next week shooting for honors in the 33rd Ohio Public Links Golf Tournament.

This year's invitational is called "The Fritz Howell Testimonial Tournament" in honor of the former Ohio Associated Press Sports Editor who retired June 1.

The field will be trimmed to the low 120 shooters and ties after Wednesday's round and then to the low 60 and ties after 54 holes. The finale is set for Friday.

Other former Public Links kings include Lalu Sabotin, the Warren fireman who won in 1963 at Springfield; Don Nist of Akron, an insurance broker who emerged the victor in the 1957 tourney at Massillon, and veteran Art Todd of Columbus, who scored at Willoughby in 1959.

Colts' Moore, Parker Don't Like Trade Talk

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — National Football League All-Stars Lenny Moore and Jim Parker don't intend to rest on their 1964 laurels. The possibility of a forced transfer from Baltimore to Atlanta late in athletic life doesn't appeal to them.

The roommates talked about the NFL plans for a grab bag of players from the other 14 clubs to start off the new franchise in Atlanta next season.

"How many players can the Colts label untouchables?" asked Parker who reported Wednesday for his ninth season as offensive lineman.

"Hmmm, out of 40," mused Parker. "And we're both over 30 years old. . ."

"Yeh, we've got to get operating right away," said Moore, who was voted the league's comeback star last season with a record 20 touchdowns. Prior to the season, the Colts had been willing to trade him.

"That's an added incentive," said Parker of the prospect of being put up for claims by Atlanta.

The other spurs are to repeat as Western Conference titlists and capture the championship which they lost at Cleveland, Dec. 27.

Vote With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both of Ohio's Democratic senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young voted with the majority Wednesday when the Senate passed and sent the Social Security-Health Care Bill to the White House by a vote of 70 to 24.

10-Pound Eel Pulled From Beaver Creek

The eel, one of the largest ever hooked in the district, weighed possibly 10 pounds according to Williams, a Waterford Park employe who said he battled the wiggler for about 20 minutes.

Williams was fishing with nightcrawlers on the bottom of the creek about a mile upstream from the mouth when he hooked the big one last Thursday.

Howard Adrian, district outdoorsman, said there haven't been many eels caught in the creeks or river in recent years because the river has been polluted. With efforts to provide industrial and community sewage disposal plants and to reduce coal mine drainage, the cleaning of streams is paving the way for expanded aquatic life.

Adrian surmised the large eel caught by Williams may have come down the river from a Pennsylvania creek. Eels bear live young in smaller streams. Only lamprey eels travel to the ocean and back as part of their life cycle, he added.

Race Chairman Voted Down By Senate Members

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate has rejected reappointment of the chairman and one member of the State Racing Commission in a reported feud over photographing of night harness races.

Voted down Wednesday night were the appointment to new terms of Chairman Lawrence Ramey, Columbus, and Russell H. Wetzel, Hamilton. Ramey was turned down by a 3-24 vote and Wetzel 5-23.

Senators were quoted as saying beforehand they disliked failure of the commission to act at a meeting Wednesday on a proposal to eliminate the photographing requirement under certain conditions.

A bill intended to do the same thing was revived Wednesday night by the Rules Committee and placed on the upper chamber's floor calendar for action today.

Burns Prove Fatal

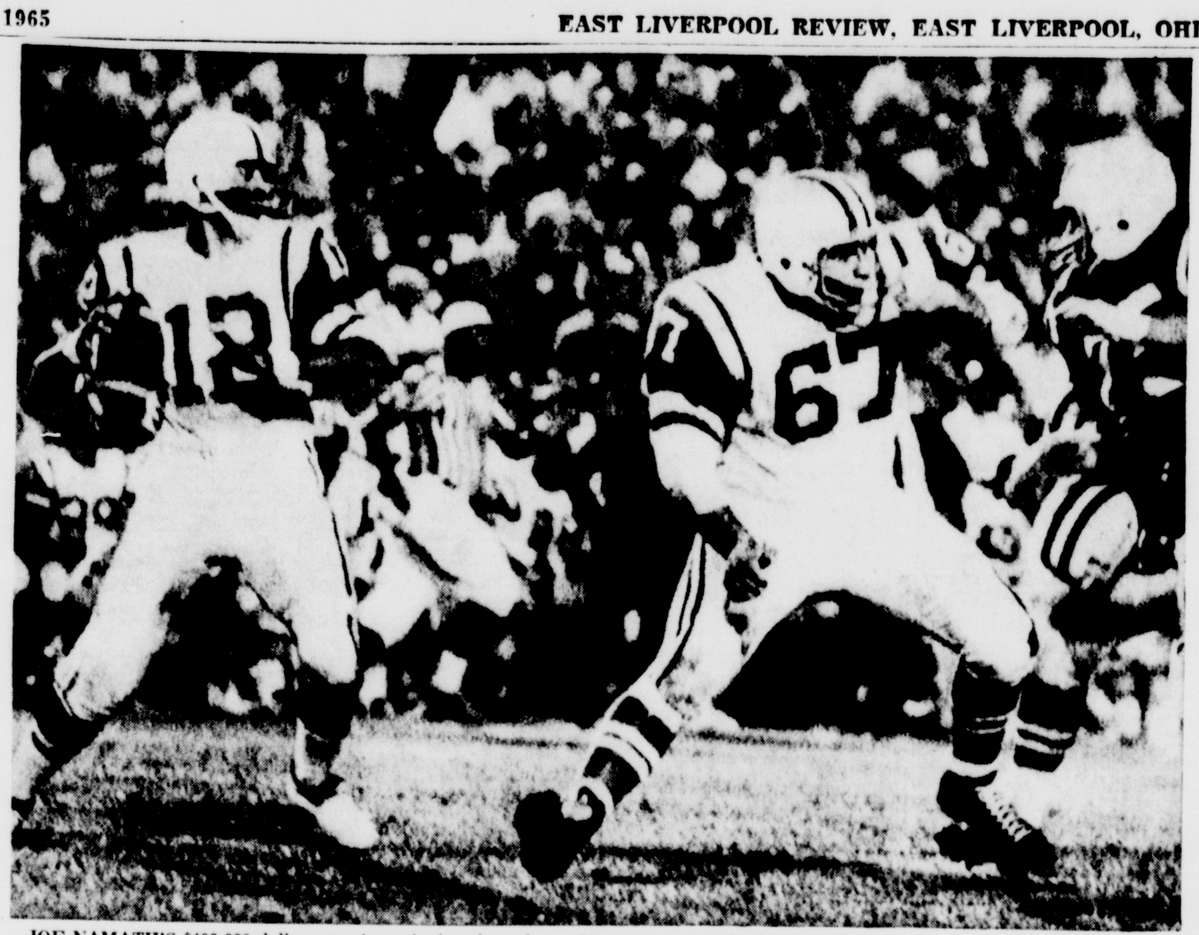
CLEVELAND (AP)— Warren Reid, 29, burned over more than half of his body in a gasoline explosion, died Wednesday. Police said he was cleaning automobile parts with gasoline at a service station July 2 when the blast occurred.



JOE NAMATH'S $400,000 dollar arm is cocked and ready to throw as he made his pro debut with the New York Jets in an exhibition game against the Boston Patriots Wednesday night in Lowell, Mass. Namath paced his team to a 23-6 win by throwing two touchdown passes and making two interceptions. Namath is No. 12 and is shown ready to pass as teammate Dave Herman (67) blocks. (UPI Telephoto)

Rains Force Golf Delay In Scotland

DALMAHOY, Scotland (AP) — The first round of the $28,000 Dalmahoy Golf Tournament was postponed before it got started today because parts of the course were flooded.

The 72-hole tournament is scheduled to last three days.

The weather sabotaged the tournament just as Raymond Floyd, 22-year old American, had run into top form. He was the favorite with canny Scots saying: "This laddie looks like another Jack Nicklaus to us."

Floyd, from St. Andrews, Ill., defeated Eric Brown — the Scot with the 100 per cent match play record against the Americans in Ryder Cup competition — by four holes in Wednesday's Little Ryder Cup match by firing a brilliant seven-under-par 34-31—65 in the rain.

The British Isles team won by 27 holes to 12 after torrential rain had cut late 18-hole singles matches to as little as 11 holes.

Brown's victims in the Ryder Cup have been Lloyd Mangrum, Tommy Bolt, Jerry Barber and Cary Middlecoff.

But as the Scot walked smiling through the rain from Dalmahoy's 18th green after taking a merciless beating from Floyd, he said: "To lose by four holes after going around in 70 seems incredible. But this boy is going to be one of the world's greats, and if I had to lose to a Yank I am glad it was to him."

An hour after Brown and Floyd had paddled in from the waterlogged battlefront, the tournament was abandoned with the score counting as the matches stood.

$400,000 Passer Shines In Debut

LOWELL, Mass. (AP) — The wraps are off Joe Namath and the $400,000 quarterback is airborne in his bid to win a starting job with New York's American Football League Jets.

The 22-year-old former Alabama standout, the highest-priced rookie in pro sports history, made his long awaited debut and turned in a creditable performance in leading the Jets to a 23-6 victory over the Boston Patriots Wednesday night in a rookie squad exhibition.

Namath completed his first pass as a pro, a 16-yard shot to Jim Evans, setting up a six-yard touchdown run by Bob Schweickert of Virginia Tech in the first period.

Then the 6-foot-2 aerial artist triggered a 12-yard scoring pass to Evans in the second period and a five-yard clothesline toss to Tom Krzemienski of Michigan State in the third quarter before retiring for the evening.

Although a few of his passes were off intended receiver's fingers, Namath finished with nine completions in 19 attempts for 106 yards. He had two passes intercepted and took the blame for one claiming he didn't set himself well enough to throw.

Golf's Top Stars Tee Up In Thunderbird Tourney

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

And defending champion Tony Lema, vintage stars Gene Sarazen and Sam Snead, and Billy Casper and Bruce Crampton, three-time winners on the PGA circuit this year.

But the focus of attention, the man with the biggest gallery and most persistent following of autograph seekers, remains Arnold Palmer.

There is little doubt Palmer is the fans' favorite for the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic which opened today over Westchester Country Club's 6,573-yard course. The slumping slugger's progress in Wednesday's program competition was closely watched, and there was a sizable and enthusiastic crowd surrounding the green when he holed out on the 18th hole.

Palmer closed with a rush, with birdies on the three of the final four holes for a one-under-par 71.

If Palmer is the popular favorite, Player must rate as the realistic choice to take the top prize of $20,000. The compactly built South African who won by 11 strokes in a special challenge tourney against Palmer and Nicklaus last week, has been shooting well all year, and is satisfied with his current form.

He and Lema carded 70s in the pro-am, topped by George Knudson and Miller Barber with 65s. Australia's Ken Nagle, loser in the U.S. Open playoff to Player, tied at 66 with Tommy Aaron and Gardner Dickinson, while Casper fired a 69 and Nicklaus a par 72.

There is a field of 149, which will be cut to the low 70 and ties for the last two 18-hole rounds Saturday and Sunday.

Scafide's Wins, Sets Stage For Friday's Showdown Tilt

Scafide's Carry - Out set the stage for a showdown battle with the Chester Merchants by posting an 8-6 victory over Gallagher's Market Wednesday in the Chester Softball League.

The victory leaves Scafide's and the Chester Merchants tied for first place and the two teams meet Friday at 6:45.

Globe Brick will meet Hancock Savings and Loan tonight at 6:45.

In an exhibition game Wednesday, Scafide's defeated a team leading the Minerva Softball League, 3-2. Dawson and Thayer homered for the winners and Jim Tice was the winning pitcher.

Collegians Lead Qualifying Play In Western Event

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A pair of collegians heads a field of 180 players into today's second qualifying round of the 63rd Western Amateur Golf Tournament, which has turned into a classic struggle against par.

Only 21-year-old Bill Newton, senior pre-med student at Michian, broke par over the giant 7,000-yard Point o' Woods course Wednesday. The Big Ten Champion drilled through a brisk wind for a 70, one stroke off the standard.

At 71 was NCAA titlist Marty Fleckman of Houston. One stroke behind was Bob Smith of Sacramento, Calif., who won the 1962 Holland and Austrian amateur titles while serving in the U.S. Army.

After today's round, the field will be chopped to the 50 low scorers and ties for the 36-hole qualifying windup Friday. The 16 low scorers then enter two days of match play for the championship in what could be regarded as the major endurance contest in major golf.

Boy Killed By Car

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mahoning County's 1965 traffic toll stood today at 45. The latest victim, 23-month-old Andrew R. Dillon, was killed Wednesday night when he ran into the path of a car in front of his home in Austintown.

271 Entered At Canton In Public Links

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Some of Ohio's best greens fee players tackle the Tam-O-Shanter course here next week shooting for honors in the 33rd Ohio Public Links Golf Tournament.

A field of 271, including four former champions, set out Tuesday in the 72-hole medal play event over the Hills' and Dales' layouts.

This year's invitational is called "The Fritz Howell Testimonial Tournament" in honor of the former Ohio Associated Press Sports Editor who retired June 1.

The field will be trimmed to the low 120 shooters and ties after Wednesday's round and then to the low 60 and ties after 54 holes. The finale is set for Friday.

Other former Public Links kings include Lalu Sabotin, the Warren fireman who won in 1963 at Springfield; Don Nist of Akron, an insurance broker who emerged the victor in the 1957 tourney at Massillon, and veteran Art Todd of Columbus, who scored at Willoughby in 1959.

Colts' Moore, Parker Don't Like Trade Talk

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — National Football League All-Stars Lenny Moore and Jim Parker don't intend to rest on their 1964 laurels. The possibility of a forced transfer from Baltimore to Atlanta late in athletic life doesn't appeal to them.

The roommates talked about the NFL plans for a grab bag of players from the other 14 clubs to start off the new franchise in Atlanta next season.

"How many players can the Colts label untouchables?" asked Parker who reported Wednesday for his ninth season as offensive lineman.

"Twenty-five," replied Moore, in his 10th year as halfback.

"Hmmm, out of 40," mused Parker. "And we're both over 30 years old. . ."

"Yeh, we've got to get operating right away," said Moore, who was voted the league's comeback star last season with a record 20 touchdowns. Prior to the season, the Colts had been willing to trade him.

"That's an added incentive," said Parker of the prospect of being put up for claims by Atlanta.

The other spurs are to repeat as Western Conference titlists and capture the championship which they lost at Cleveland, Dec. 27.

Vote With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both of Ohio's Democratic senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young voted with the majority Wednesday when the Senate passed and sent the Social Security-Health Care Bill to the White House by a vote of 70 to 24.

HAROLD WILLIAMS

10-Pound Eel Pulled From Beaver Creek

Is the gradual cleaning of the Ohio River bringing the return of the eel to this area?

The catch of a 38-inch long freshwater eel last week in Beaver Creek by Harold Williams of 915 Vine St. might indicate such a trend.

The eel, one of the largest ever hooked in the district, weighed possibly 10 pounds according to Williams, a Waterford Park employe who said he battled the wiggler for about 20 minutes.

Williams was fishing with nightcrawlers on the bottom of the creek about a mile upstream from the mouth when he hooked the big one last Thursday.

A native of Moundsville who moved here recently, Williams said he gave the catch away before learning eels can provide a delicious meal.

Howard Adrian, district outdoorsman, said there haven't been many eels caught in the creeks or river in recent years because the river has been polluted. With efforts to provide industrial and community sewage disposal plants and to reduce coal mine drainage, the cleaning of streams is paving the way for expanded aquatic life.

Adrian surmised the large eel caught by Williams may have come down the river from a Pennsylvania creek. Eels bear live young in smaller streams. Only lamprey eels travel to the ocean and back as part of their life cycle, he added.

Fortas Became Top Lawyer

New High Court Justice Ex-New Deal 'Whiz Kid'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee-born Abe Fortas, President Johnson's choice for the Supreme Court, is a onetime New Deal whiz kid who became a top lawyer and made a reputation as a champion of individual liberties.

General counsel of the Public Works Administration at 29 and undersecretary of the interior at 32, Fortas, now 55, was nominated Wednesday by Johnson to succeed newly named U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg on the high court.

In announcing Fotas' appointment at a news conference, Johnson called his long-time friend and adviser "a scholar, a profound thinker, a lawyer of superior ability, and a man of humane and deeply compassionate feelings toward his fellow man — a champion of our liberties."

As a senior partner of one of Washington leading law firms — Arnold, Fortas and Porter — Fortas has defended such clients as Owen Lattimore, the Far East specialist accused in the early 1950s of lying about Communist associations, and Bobby Baker, the former Senate aide whose business affairs came under congressional fire.

In 1963 Fortas represented a penniless Florida man, Clarence Gideon, in the historic case in which the Supreme Court ruled that states must provide free counsel to paupers accused of a crime. A decade earlier, Fortas won the Durham case in which the U.S. Court of Appeals here broadened the legal definition of insanity.

His background suggests Fortas will become a member of the court's "liberal" bloc, which has favored increased use of judicial power to protect individual rights and to raise state court practices to federal stands.

On Monday, White House News Secretary Bill D. Moyers said Fortas had told Johnson repeatedly he wanted no government post "from president on down." Tuesday Moyers said Fortas turned down two offers and repeated he was not interested in any post.

Health Care Bill Awaits Johnson OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has completed its work on the Social Security-health care bill and President Johnson is expected to sign it into law either Friday or Saturday.

The Senate gave final approval Wednesday in a 70-24 vote that climaxed a 30-year fight to give elderly persons health care under Social Security.

The measure must become law by midnight Saturday if the Social Security Administration is to be able to carry out its plan of making the increased Social Security payments effective with September checks.

The $6.5-billion bill gives broad new hospital and nursing home care plus outpatient hospital diagnostic services and nome health visits to the 19 million Americans 65 and over.

It also sets up a voluntary supplemental insurance plan covering doctors' fees for services at home, in the office or in hospitals at a cost of $3 per month per person and a similar payment from the government.

And it increases all present Social Security checks — for retired and disabled persons and family survivors — by 7 per cent retroactive to last Jan. 1. This will give 20 million persons increases of at least $4 a month.

Social Security taxes will be increased to pay for the new programs. The wage base on which the tax is paid will go up from $4,800 at present to $6,600 next year. An employe earning that much would pay an additional $103.20 more next year.

Tobin Orders Youth Sent To Pennsylvania

LISBON—A 17-year-old Pennsylvania youth has been ordered returned to authorties in that state by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after a hearing this morning.

The youth, who resides in Smiths Ferry, was apprehended yesterday after entering the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cledith Miller, 2218 Crawford Ave., and taking $120 in bills from the pocket of Miller's trousers while the Millers were sleeping.

Motorist Again To Face Drunken Driving Charge

A LaCroft motorist is scheduled to be arraigned Friday morning in Municipal Court for the second time in slightly more than two months on a charge of drunken driving.

Edward J. Emler of 7th Ave. also will face Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended.

Emler was arrested at 4:37 a. m. today on W. 8th St., police said.

Advised by officers that Emler still was too intoxicated to appear, Judge Chertoff scheduled the hearing tomorrow and set the motorist's bond at $500 on each charge.

Court records show that Emler was arrested May 21 on a drunk driving count and was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to five days in jail and had his operator's license suspended for 60 days.

FOUR OTHER motorists also are scheduled for hearings Friday.

Gary Wayne Sendling, 18, of Shadyside Ave. is scheduled to appear on a charge of driving without an operator's permit. The young motorcyclist was cited Wednesday at 10:25 p.m. by the State Highway Patrol.

The patrol officer said he noticed Sendling driving without lights. When he stopped him to check, the officer said he found Sendling had a temporary permit but was not accompanied by a licensed driver as required by law.

Carol Louise Marsiglio, 1504 Clark Ave., Wellsville, was cited by the patrol at 11 p. m. yesterday for crashing a traffic signal at Jefferson and W. 6th Sts. She also is scheduled to appear tomorrow.

Frank Watkins, 30, of R. D. 3 is due to appear on a charge that he "did drive other than on the right half of the roadway."

The patrol cited Watkins after his car struck and broke off a utility pole on Park Way just outside the city limits. The patrol said Watkins left the scene and went home, adding that he was hurt slightly and there was moderate damage to his car.

Raymond A. Holt of Bell School Rd. is scheduled for a hearing on a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Routes 7 and 30 in the Sub Station area.

TWO MORE motorists cited Wednesday are scheduled for hearings Monday before Chertoff.

Eugene Clinton Hughes, 133 E. 3rd St., is to appear on charges of operating a motor vehicle without filing application for registration and operating an unsafe motor vehicle.

Hughes was cited at the intersection of Route 30 and 170 at 1:50 p. m. by Patrolman D.D. Sumrok, who said Hughes had ignored a warning issued by the officer on July 4 to have the car repaired and to obtain a title and registration.

The 1951 auto did not have a right headlight, the windshield wipers were defective, the horn was not working properly, the gas tank was leaking and the rear springs were broken.

Bell and Charles W. Florey, a Navy man from Rhode Island, were cited by Patrolman C. A. Winters in a radar check yesterday.

Chancellor Says Official Radio Can Be Persuasive

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Chancellor, newsman named to head the Voice of America, said today that official radio can be most persuasive about the United States' Viet Nam policy by sticking firmly to truth and balance.

President Johnson announced Wednesday his choice of Chancellor, chief White House correspondent for the National Broadcasting Co. The President hailed him as the first working newsman to be put in charge of the government's world-girding radio voice.

"I am satisfied the President wants the Voice to tell the truth," Chancellor said in an interview.

He said he proposes to see that the official service observes the same standards of accuracy, judgment and balance as do unofficial U.S. news gathering agencies, and he added quickly, "I believe we have them now. The newscast is inviolate. People have to believe it.

"If I can bring to VOA — to its own skillful people — a sort of outside invigoration, I will be performing a function."

Chancellor took over the NBC White House job last November and before that, he said, he had had no real personal contact with Johnson.

"I had shaken hands with him, I had done some coverage, at a distance. I had never even interviewed him."

It was July 17, he said, when the President offered him the voice directorship.

A surprise? he was asked. "A great shock," he replied.

"I was happy as a flea at NBC," Chancellor went on, "but he has a way. My arm was never twisted, but he is able to make irrelevant all questions of career and money and present job and make you think truly in terms of service. He left me no ethical alternative."

Chancellor lives in Northwest Washington with his wife, the former Barbara Upshaw, a California girl, and their two children, Laura, 6, who was born in Vienna, and Barnaby, 5, who was born in London. His 14-year-old daughter by a former marriage, Mary, is visiting in Europe "and I hope listening to the Voice," her father said.

Boston Eyes 28-Foot Jump In American-Russian Meet

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP) — The 28-foot mark is Ralph Boston's long jump goal in the Soviet-American track and field meet here this weekend — and he thinks it possible.

"Everything must be just right — conditions, weather, my takeoff and landing," the wiry Tennessee A&I world record holdeer said today.

"I feel great but I must improve my landing soon. I don't know what it'll take to win but I hope I've got it. I want to keep my record clean against Ter-Ovanesyan."

The duel between Boston and Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan offers one of the featured sidelights of the annual meeting of the two big track powers Saturday and Sunday in Kiev's Central Stadium.

Boston never has lost to his Soviet rival outdoors. He holds the world record of 27 feet 4¼ inches set at Los Angeles last September. Ter-Ovanesyan's best this year is 26 feet 1½.

The Olympic champion, Billy Mills of Oceanside, Calif., in the 10,000 meters, and Bob Schul of Dayton, Ohio, in the 5,000, both have been running in Europe prior to coming here. Gerry Lindgren 19-year-old distance ace of Spokane, Wash., is suffering from a bad cold.

Also on the ailing list is Rex Cawley, Olympic 400-meter champion from Los Angeles, bothered with an Achilles tendon. He, too, has been running in Europe.

Fortas Became Top Lawyer

New High Court Justice Ex-New Deal 'Whiz Kid'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee-born Abe Fortas, President Johnson's choice for the Supreme Court, is a onetime New Deal whiz kid who became a top lawyer and made a reputation as a champion of individual liberties.

General counsel of the Public Works Administration at 29 and undersecretary of the interior at 32, Fortas, now 55, was nominated Wednesday by Johnson to succeed newly named U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg on the high court.

In announcing Fotas' appointment at a news conference, Johnson called his long-time friend and adviser "a scholar, a profound thinker, a lawyer of superior ability, and a man of humane and deeply compassionate feelings toward his fellow man — a champion of our liberties."

As a senior partner of one of Washington leading law firms — Arnold, Fortas and Porter — Fortas has defended such clients as Owen Lattimore, the Far East specialist accused in the early 1950s of lying about Communist associations, and Bobby Baker, the former Senate aide whose business affairs came under congressional fire.

In 1963 Fortas represented a penniless Florida man, Clarence Gideon, in the historic case in which the Supreme Court ruled that states must provide free counsel to paupers accused of a crime. A decade earlier, Fortas won the Durham case in which the U.S. Court of Appeals here broadened the legal definition of insanity.

His background suggests Fortas will become a member of the court's "liberal" bloc, which has favored increased use of judicial power to protect individual rights and to raise state court practices to federal stands.

The appointment appeared to be another example of the President's powers of persuasion.

On Monday, White House News Secretary Bill D. Moyers said Fortas had told Johnson repeatedly he wanted no government post "from president on down." Tuesday Moyers said Fortas turned down two offers and repeated he was not interested in any post.

Tobin Orders Youth Sent To Pennsylvania

LISBON—A 17-year-old Pennsylvania youth has been ordered returned to authorties in that state by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after a hearing this morning.

The youth, who resides in Smiths Ferry, was apprehended yesterday after entering the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cledith Miller, 2218 Crawford Ave., and taking $120 in bills from the pocket of Miller's trousers while the Millers were sleeping.

Health Care Bill Awaits Johnson OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has completed its work on the Social Security-health care bill and President Johnson is expected to sign it into law either Friday or Saturday.

The Senate gave final approval Wednesday in a 70-24 vote that climaxed a 30-year fight to give elderly persons health care under Social Security.

The measure must become law by midnight Saturday if the Social Security Administration is to be able to carry out its plan of making the increased Social Security payments effective with September checks.

The $6.5-billion bill gives broad new hospital and nursing home care plus outpatient hospital diagnostic services and nome health visits to the 19 million Americans 65 and over.

It also sets up a voluntary supplemental insurance plan covering doctors' fees for services at home, in the office or in hospitals at a cost of $3 per month per person and a similar payment from the government.

And it increases all present Social Security checks — for retired and disabled persons and family survivors — by 7 per cent retroactive to last Jan. 1. This will give 20 million persons increases of at least $4 a month.

Social Security taxes will be increased to pay for the new programs. The wage base on which the tax is paid will go up from $4,800 at present to $6,600 next year. An employe earning that much would pay an additional $103.20 more next year.

Motorist Again To Face Drunken Driving Charge

A LaCroft motorist is scheduled to be arraigned Friday morning in Municipal Court for the second time in slightly more than two months on a charge of drunken driving.

Edward J. Emler of 7th Ave. also will face Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended.

Emler was arrested at 4:37 a. m. today on W. 8th St., police said.

Advised by officers that Emler still was too intoxicated to appear, Judge Chertoff scheduled the hearing tomorrow and set the motorist's bond at $500 on each charge.

Court records show that Emler was arrested May 21 on a drunk driving count and was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to five days in jail and had his operator's license suspended for 60 days.

FOUR OTHER motorists also are scheduled for hearings Friday.

Gary Wayne Sendling, 18, of Shadyside Ave. is scheduled to appear on a charge of driving without an operator's permit. The young motorcyclist was cited Wednesday at 10:25 p.m. by the State Highway Patrol.

The patrol officer said he noticed Sendling driving without lights. When he stopped him to check, the officer said he found Sendling had a temporary permit but was not accompanied by a licensed driver as required by law.

Carol Louise Marsiglio, 1504 Clark Ave., Wellsville, was cited by the patrol at 11 p. m. yesterday for crashing a traffic signal at Jefferson and W. 6th Sts. She also is scheduled to appear tomorrow.

Frank Watkins, 30, of R. D. 3 is due to appear on a charge that he "did drive other than on the right half of the roadway."

The patrol cited Watkins after his car struck and broke off a utility pole on Park Way just outside the city limits. The patrol said Watkins left the scene and went home, adding that he was hurt slightly and there was moderate damage to his car.

Raymond A. Holt of Bell School Rd. is scheduled for a hearing on a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Routes 7 and 30 in the Sub Station area.

TWO MORE motorists cited Wednesday are scheduled for hearings Monday before Chertoff.

Eugene Clinton Hughes, 133 E. 3rd St., is to appear on charges of operating a motor vehicle without filing application for registration and operating an unsafe motor vehicle.

Hughes was cited at the intersection of Route 30 and 170 at 1:50 p. m. by Patrolman D.D. Sumrok, who said Hughes had ignored a warning issued by the officer on July 4 to have the car repaired and to obtain a title and registration.

The 1951 auto did not have a right headlight, the windshield wipers were defective, the horn was not working properly, the gas tank was leaking and the rear springs were broken.

Robert Bell of Connellsville, Pa., posted a $27.50 bond for a hearing Monday on a charge of speeding 48 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St. yesterday.

Bell and Charles W. Florey, a Navy man from Rhode Island, were cited by Patrolman C. A. Winters in a radar check yesterday.

Chancellor Says Official Radio Can Be Persuasive

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Chancellor, newsman named to head the Voice of America, said today that official radio can be most persuasive about th United States' Viet Nam policy by sticking firmly to truth and balance.

President Johnson announced Wednesday his choice of Chancellor, chief White House correspondent for the National Broadcasting Co. The President hailed him as the first working newsman to be put in charge of the government's world-girding radio voice.

"I am satisfied the President wants the Voice to tell the truth," Chancellor said in an interview.

He said he proposes to see that the official service observes the same standards of accuracy, judgment and balance as do unofficial U.S. news gathering agencies, and he added quickly, "I believe we have them now. The newscast is inviolate. People have to believe it.

"If I can bring to VOA — to its own skillful people — a sort of outside invigoration, I will be performing a function."

Chancellor took over the NBC White House job last November and before that, he said, he had had no real personal contact with Johnson.

"I had shaken hands with him, I had done some coverage, at a distance. I had never even interviewed him."

It was July 17, he said, when the President offered him the voice directorship.

A surprise? he was asked. "A great shock," he replied.

"I was happy as a flea at NBC," Chancellor went on, "but he has a way. My arm was never twisted, but he is able to make irrelevant all questions of career and money and present job and make you think truly in terms of service. He left me no ethical alternative."

Chancellor lives in Northwest Washington with his wife, the former Barbara Upshaw, a California girl, and their two children, Laura, 6, who was born in Vienna, and Barnaby, 5, who was born in London. His 14-year-old daughter by a former marriage, Mary, is visiting in Europe "and I hope listening to the Voice," her father said.

Boston Eyes 28-Foot Jump In American-Russian Meet

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP) — The 28-foot mark is Ralph Boston's long jump goal in the Soviet-American track and field meet here this weekend — and he thinks it possible.

"Everything must be just right — conditions, weather, my takeoff and landing," the wiry Tennessee A&I world record holdeer said today.

"I feel great but I must improve my landing soon. I don't know what it'll take to win but I hope I've got it. I want to keep my record clean against Ter-Ovanesyan."

The duel between Boston and Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan offers one of the featured sidelights of the annual meeting of the two big track powers Saturday and Sunday in Kiev's Central Stadium.

Boston never has lost to his Soviet rival outdoors. He holds the world record of 27 feet 4¼ inches set at Los Angeles last September. Ter-Ovanesyan's best this year is 26 feet 1½.

On the darker side are doubts about U.S. strength in the distance races, where the Russians normally excel.

The Olympic champion, Billy Mills of Oceanside, Calif., in the 10,000 meters, and Bob Schul of Dayton, Ohio, in the 5,000, both have been running in Europe prior to coming here. Gerry Lindgren 19-year-old distance ace of Spokane, Wash., is suffering from a bad cold.

Also on the ailing list is Rex Cawley, Olympic 400-meter champion from Los Angeles, bothered with an Achilles tendon. He, too, has been running in Europe.

NEW CASES

Samuel Bingham & Son Mfg. Co., Pittsburgh, vs. Northeast Ohio Machine Builders, Inc., Columbiana; plaintiff seeks $1,000 plus interest at 6 per cent per annum from Feb. 27, 1963, for merchandise sold and delivered at defendant's request.

4-H News

Plans were made to paint and letter the community mailboxes at a meeting of the G. and B. Blue Ribbon 4-H Club of Hammondsville, Tuesday night.

Plans also were discussed to invite the Highlandtown Grange to a meeting Aug. 17.

During business, conducted by Bruce Burgett, president, projects were discussed. Alice Brown led devotions.

Lunch was served by Miss Brown and Bruce Burgett. Linda Board was a guest.

The next meeting will be Tuesday.

COMMUNITY MOTORS
"YOUR DODGE DEALER"
570 Broadway
386-5430

A DEALER needs cars and pick-ups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. —There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer, only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

A DEALER needs cars and pick-ups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. —There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer, only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANT HOUSES

QUESTION: What are ant houses made of?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Ants work together in a social society and most of them operate from a home base. Different kinds of ants make different houses. Carpenter ants live in tunnels bored in wood. Harvester ants build mounds rising above ground. Certain ants, living in trees, make nests of leaves which they fasten together. A great many tunnel into the earth. We show a cross section of a such a home—or rather village, so many activities are going on inside. There is a room where the queen is laying eggs; another where eggs are being hatched into larvae; and one in which the larvae are changing into pupae, the last stage before anthood. Other rooms are used for storage of various food supplies. Take a look at an ant home for yourself. Turn over a few stones and you are pretty sure to find one with a bustling ant colony underneath. There may be many large white objects which are the pupae from which the adult ants emerge. Watch the workers rushing frantically around, apparently without direction. You may think: "Poor little creatures—they haven't the slightest idea what to do next!" But they do.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch the ant colony you have uncovered for awhile. Notice how the ants get the precious white pupae to a safe underground place as soon as possible. In a very short while, every last pupae will have been moved to one of the nurseries below.

Youth's Hurt As Car Flips

A Lisbon area youth received a bruised head when his car overturned near Route 172 and a city woman escaped injury when her auto was struck from behind by another car Wednesday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Lawrence McDevitt, 16, of Lisbon R.D. 1 made a turn off Route 172, west of Lisbon, and lost control of his 1961 coach which veered off the township road, hit an embankment and overturned.

Alice Weldon, 51, of R.D. 1 reported an auto operated by a Summit County man struck her 1965 sedan on Route 30, a mile north of the intersection with Route 170 at 6:45 p. m.

She said she had slowed for a car parked partially on the highway and was hit in the rear by the other vehicle. She said the other driver halted, and they exchanged names, and she then decided to report the crash to the patrol.

Millionaire Claimed

"Going down to the sea in ships" during the historic days of whaling was no short excursion. Most whaling ships of the 19th century were at sea for three full years on each trip.

Youth's Hurt As Car Flips

A Lisbon area youth received a bruised head when his car overturned near Route 172 and a city woman escaped injury when her auto was struck from behind by another car Wednesday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Lawrence McDevitt, 16, of Lisbon R.D. 1 made a turn off Route 172, west of Lisbon, and lost control of his 1961 coach which veered off the township road, hit an embankment and overturned.

Alice Weldon, 51, of R.D. 1 reported an auto operated by a Summit County man struck her 1965 sedan on Route 30, a mile north of the intersection with Route 170 at 6:45 p. m.

She said she had slowed for a car parked partially on the highway and was hit in the rear by the other vehicle. She said the other driver halted, and they exchanged names, and she then decided to report the crash to the patrol.

Millionaire Claimed

"Going down to the sea in ships" during the historic days of whaling was no short excursion. Most whaling ships of the 19th century were at sea for three full years on each trip.
